A Weisel Family History.

The pioneer ancestor of the Weisel family was Michael and wife Susanna, who with other family's (169) persons emigrated to Pennsylvania from the Palatinate* on the ship "Pink" (JOHN & WILLIAM) which arrived October 17, 1732 from Rotterdam, Netherlands. They had three sons: Jacob, Michael and George. [Comment by Bonnie Swartley Martin: The Pink was a type of sailing ship; John & William was the name of the ship.]

On February 15, 1743, there was surveyed to Michael Weisel, 2 tracts of land in the northwestern part of Bedminster Twp., located near the Tohickon Church (one of the original German Reformed Churches in Bucks County, Pennsylvania) fronting on Swamp Road, then as now, the line between Hilltown and Bedford Twps., one of the 150 acres and the other 131 acres. The Weisels were among the earliest members of the Tohickon Church and several members of the family lie buried in adjoining churchyards.

They were also pioneers in education as the first land alienated from the family was set off of the original plantation for a school house in 1767, with Jacob and Michael Weisel among the trustees, and upon which a schoolhouse had already been erected. These schools were supported by the Weisels and neighbors until they were supported by taxation, then later being sold by Samuel Weisel as agent for the surviving trustees and converted into private use, April 2, 1861.

The date of death of Michael Weisel, Sr., and his wife is not definitely known. In 1757 they conveyed the paternal acres to their eldest son, Jacob, and he in turn conveyed a portion to his brothers Michael and George, the other brothers having settled in Richland Twp.

All that is definitely known is that he, Michael, Sr., was deceased in July 1767, when his son Jacob made the conveyance of the school house lot.

The following is from Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania Wills, 1682-1819 found at <http://search.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/sse.dll?&gsfn=&gsln=weisel&sx=&gskw=&server=search&databaseid=4695&db=philpa1682&ti=&refine=1&prox=&submit.x=47&submit.y=17&gss=angs&pf=1&fh=&ct=>

Will of Michael Weisel (About 1693 - before July, 1770)

Translation, I Michael Weisel being at this time sick and weak but yet of sound understanding do hereby make my testament or last will in the words following. First it is my will that after my decease my heirs do bury me in a Christian like manner and my soul I commend to the Lord God. Secondly, it is my will that all the movable goods wherewith God has blessed me shall be of my wife Susanna and she shall keep the same in her hands during her life and do therewith as she pleases and she shall have her living in the house where we now dwell agreeable to the contract made between myself and my son Jacob Wysel. Thirdly it is my will that all my children so as they are herein mentioned shall have their hereditary shares in manner following: first my son Jacob Weisel shall have my plantation and for the same he shall give to his brothers and sisters their hereditary shares, first to my eldest son 50 pounds in May Fair to wit, the 27th of May 1758 he shall give him 25 pounds and the 27th of May 1759 again 25 pounds which shall be his full hereditary share. Then to my second son Michael he shall give the 27th of May 1760 25 pounds and the 27th of May 1761 again 25 pounds which shall be his full hereditary share. Thirdly, to my

Michael Weissel (his mark)

Comments regarding Michael Weisel's will made by Alan Weisel, May 27, 2000:
A photocopy of Michael Weissel's will was obtained from the Bucks County Register of Wills, 55 Court Street, Doylestown, PA.

As the will indicates, Michael Weissel could not write his name, at least in English. The sons referred to are more obscure except that one might surmise that Michael and Henry are the older sons. I've traced George Weisel back from his final residence in Warrington Township to Montgomery County, PA to Bedminster Township, Bucks County in the 1800 census. It seems likely that the son George mentioned in the will is the same person but I want to search the deeds to further verify this. A son Henry is mentioned in my father's notes and there is a Henry Weisel (1760-1830) with a Revolutionary War marker buried in the Tohickon Union Cemetery which is probably the same person. I can find no mention of Henry being baptised at the church, however, nor any mention of a Michael Weisel baptism. There are mention of both Henry and Michael as witnesses or parents, however. There are several Michael Weisels in fact. The Bucks County militia in which George, Henry, Michael and Frederick Weisel are cited is not shown as having Revolutionary War service in the National Archives. They are listed in the Pennsylvania State Archives and I have not yet tried to obtain copies of the enlistment papers. The milita soldier George Weisel can't be the George in our line as he wasn't born until 1773. I also plan to search the deed records for my ancestor George Weisel at the various places that he lived of which there are a surprising number: Bedminster Twnship, Montgomery County, New Britain Twnship, and finally Warrington Twnship. He is not buried in Warrington however, but at the St. Peters (Lutheran and Reformed) Union Cemetery in Hilltown Township.

Michael (Kiefer) Weisel Jr. and Maria Magdalena Drach or Trauch had the following children:

 - i. MICHAEL III (DRACH)³ WEISEL was born about 1750. He died in 1830 in Tinicum Township, Bucks County, PA. He married MARY.
 - ii. MARY ELIZABETH (DRACH) WEISEL was born about 1753.

- iii. MARY CATHERINE (DRACH) WEISEL was born on 03 Dec 1755.

 - iv. JOHN HENRY (DRACH) WEISEL was born on 06 Apr 1760 in Bedminster Twp, Bucks County, PA. He died on 26 May 1830. He married EVA (REDLEIN) SHELLENBERGER. She was born on 18 Apr 1769. She died on 08 Apr 1855.

Three adjoining farms - Henry, Samuel & Aaron Weisel

The following information is based on the notes of Willis L. Weisel b. 1897 in Warrington Township, d. 1991 in Hatboro, PA at the age of 94. Willis L. was the son of H. Phares (1861-1934) who married Mary Clymer. H. Alan Weisel is the son of Willis L. Weisel.

In Colonial times there was situated a great plantation of 315 acres owned by a Welsh family named Reese. The lands of this plantation are now subdivided into the families of Adam Martin, Samuel Weisel, and Charles Haldeman and the Selner estate besides a portion belonging to the Larzelere farm. Previous to 1768, there was but one house where now there are eight.

In 1722, Joseph Kirkbridge, a land speculator of colonial times, sold 250 acres to Thomas Reese. In 1729, a contiguous tract of 65 acres was purchased from John Humphrey making 315 acres in all. In 1768 a son, David Reese, began to divide and sell the plantation. Robert Flack in 1768 bought 85 acres. This part was lately included in portions of farms of Henry and Aaron Weisel. In 1773, Reese sold the remainder of 237 1/4 acres to Henry Darrah. James Darrah, a son of Henry, came into possession of 170 acres in 1789 by purchase from his father's estate. This included the present farm of Samuel Weisel and the mill site while his brother, William acquired the Haldeman farm. In 1794 James Darrah moved to Warminster and sold the farm to Michael Moyer. He divided this 170 acres between his two sons, Michael and Abraham, the latter received 91 acres.

George L. Weisel bought of Michael Moyer in 1828. The Weisels are descendants of Geo. Michael Weisel, who emigrated in 1732 from Alsace. Three sons came with him, Michael, Jacob and Frederick. They were redemptioners, or those who having no money to pay their passage, were sold into servitude for a time to pay that debt. Michael settled in Bedminister where he married Mary Trach in 1750 and bought land near Hagersville. His son, Henry served in the Revolutionary Army. His son George was born in that township in 1773 and only came to Warrington Township when an elderly man where he lived to be 89 when he died in 1862 and was buried in Hilltown Reformed Church Cemetery. He built a saw mill on his purchase. In 1831 he moved to Montgomery County after conveying his lands to his sons, John George and Michael. In 1840, John George became the owner of the whole. Flack conveyed in 1848 his land to John George Weisel. In 1849, Henry Weisel, brother of Samuel and Aaron Weisel became the owner. H. Alan Weisel's notes.

I have seen this article, I'll attach a copy of my transcription and annotations that I made. There are both inaccuracies of structure and inaccuracies of fact in the article. In the first instance, Samuel's great-grandfather is George Michael II, his great-great-grandfather would be the immigrant patriarch, George Michael I. This misstatement leads me to believe that structurally, there appears to have been a misunderstanding of the family tree. There was a George Michael in the first, second and third generations of the family and they all relate to our line. The immigrant patriarch is George Michael I. His second son, George Michael II is second generation and is our direct ancestor. He was born in Europe and came with his family when he was a boy about 12 years of age. His eldest son is George Michael III and he was native born. At one time, all three men lived in Bedminster Township, the first two for remainder of their lives after the land purchase in 1743. George Michael III is shown on the 1783 tax rolls as living in Bedminster but he later removed to Tinicum Township and died there in 1818. He is listed as Michael Jr. on the tax roll to distinguish him from his father, George Michael II who is listed as Michael Sr. on the same tax roll. The immigrant patriarch, George Michael I, probably died about 1770, the year his will was probated in Philadelphia County.

In the second instance, regarding inaccuracies of fact, Samuel's older brother, Henry, died in

Generation 5 (con't)

1885, not 1884. There is conflicting evidence as to the exact day of his death but not the year. Samuel was born in Montgomery County according to information on his death certificate. In scanning the deed records, I could find no evidence that George Ludwig ever owned land in Montgomery County although the family lived there for an extended period of time. They were listed as living in Montgomery County in the 1830 US Census but had removed to New Britain Township by the 1840 Census. All that said, there is still valuable information listed in this biography of our ancestor, Samuel Weisel.

H. Alan Weisel's notes:

SAMUEL WEISEL, farmer and lumberman, P.O. Chalfont, is of German lineage, his great-great-grandfather [should read greatgrandfather] [George Michael Weisel (George Michael I I)] having emigrated from Germany [with his family], when 12 years of age. [George Michael Weisel (George Michael I), the immigrant patriarch was married and came to North America with either 6 or 7 children depending on whether Frederick was the eldest son named in the 1757 will]. He [George Michael II] settled in Bedminster township, where his son Michael was born [incorrect - son George Michael II - Michael Sr.] came with the family and in 1732 was about age 12 when they arrived in Philadelphia and lived until his death [in 1796 at age 76]. His son, George [Ludwig], was the grandfather of our subject. He was born in Bedminster, March 11, 1773, and removed to Montgomery County, where he bought a farm, where he lived until he came [not as direct as this description implies] to the farm now occupied by Samuel, on which he died, April 23, 1862 in his ninetieth year. On April 19, 1796, he was married to Margaret Scheib, who was born June 8, 1775 and died May 27, 1858 in her eighty-third year. Their children were Mary Magdalena, [John] George and Michael, all deceased. [John] George, the father of Samuel was born November 8, 1799, and died February 23, 1881, aged 82. He lived with his father until the latter's death, and in 1833 [the family consisting of three generations] removed from Montgomery County [first to New Britain Township] and then to the place now occupied by his descendants in this township, which he and his brother Michael owned in partnership. Later they dissolved, and George took the entire property, which he deeded to his son Samuel on the latter's marriage. On September 15, 1822 he was married to Catherine, daughter of John Scheib, of New Britain Township, where she was born, August 22, 1802. She is still living with her son, and is now in her eighty-sixth year. To this union four children were born: Henry, born September 21, 1823, and died June 3, 1884? [1885]; Mary Ann, born October 3, 1825, who died February 20, 1878; Aaron, born February 25, 1831, now living in New Britain Township; and Samuel born April 12, 1828. He was five years of age [no, the family was still living in Montgomery County in the 1830 census] when his parents came to this township, and since then has always lived on the same place. On his marriage he took possession of the farm, his parents removing to the new house they had built on the property where his father died, and where Samuel had also removed a few months previously. The farm then comprised sixty-four acres, but subsequent purchases by Mr. Samuel Weisel have increased it to two hundred and seventy-three acres, making him the largest landowner in the township. Seven years ago he gave up active management of the farm to his son, Franklin P., and has since attended to the saw-mill, which adjoins the place. On November 2, 1851, he was married to Catherine A., daughter of John M. Kober, who was born in New Britain Township, September 15, 1829. Their union was blessed with six children: Franklin P., A. Amanda, Mary A., Catherine Ann, Henry Phares, living; and Sallie E., deceased. Mr. Weisel has an interest in educational matters, and for sixteen years has been school director. He and his wife are members of St. Peters's Reformed church at Hilltown, of which he has been a deacon. He is an energetic citizen, whose well-directed labors have entitled him to the competence he is enjoying. In politics he is a Democrat.

Notes for Catharine Ann Kober:

Birth and death dates are recorded in the Bible of her granddaughter, Grace Weisel Swartley, Sr. The same dates appear on her tombstone in the Pleasantville United Church of Christ cemetery, 3424 Limekiln Pike (Route 152), Chalfont, PA 18914.

Generation 5 (con't)

This is an excerpt of a letter written in 2003 from Elizabeth Swartley Stover to her niece, Bonnie Swartley Martin.

"A couple of weeks ago I heard Dr. Kriebel talk on powwowing. Did you know that Nana's (Grace Weisel Swartley, Sr.) Grandmother Weisel (Catharine Kober Weisel) who lived in the lower house(now 560 Mill Creek Road) powwowed? Nana recalls people hobbling in with plantar warts on soles of their feet. And they are very painful and she would massage feet, say sentences in German and perhaps a verse from Bible and in a couple days warts would be gone.

Dr. Kriebel said the most common powwower got rid of warts.

When Nana was (Grace Weisel Swartley, Sr.) 10-12 yrs- She asked her grandmother to teach her (that is how you learned the art.) Grandmother said she had the blessing (meaning personality & liked people) but she felt it was satanic and wanted it to die with her since she had been taught by her grandmother."

1900 United States Federal Census states that Catharine's father was born in Germany and her mother was born in Pennsylvania.

Samuel W. (Scheib) Weisel and Catharine Ann Kober had the following children:

17. i. FRANKLIN PEARCE (KOBBER)⁶ WEISEL was born on 18 Jan 1854 in Warrington Twp, Bucks, PA. He died on 03 May 1895 in Warrington, Bucks, Pennsylvania. He married Kate (Haupt) Stout, daughter of Malachai Stout and Jane Haupt or Haupt on 22 Jan 1880 in Linden Farm, Pennsylvania. She was born on 28 Mar 1856 in Pennsylvania. She died on 16 Dec 1941 in Pennsylvania.

In the 1860 Census, 14-year-old Kate is living with her parents Malachai & Jane Haupt Stout, her siblings Joseph, Elwood, Charles, and Elizabeth. An older family member told me that Amanda, 10, was not Kate's younger sister, but the out-of-wedlock child of one of Kate's older sisters.

Newspaper obituary found in Bible of daughter, Grace:

"Mrs. Kate S. Weisel

Ill of a complication of ailments incident to old age, Mrs. Kate S. Weisel, aged 85, widow of Frank P. Weisel, who at one time owned a farm in Warrington township, died at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Weisel, Ardsley, Tuesday, Dec. 16 [1941].

Born in the vicinity of Ambler, the deceased was the last of the 11 children of the late Malachai and Jane (nee Haupt) Stout. Mrs. Weisel spent the greater part of her life in Warrington and vicinity."

The 1910 Census places the 54-year-old Kate still on the farm, living with daughter Ada K., 19; daughter Grace E., 17, and son Samuel W., 15.

Note by Bonnie Swartley Martin, Kate's great granddaughter: Kate was widowed in 1895, after giving birth to the couple's seventh and last child. At the time of Frank's death, the oldest child Mabel was 14 years old, Amanda (Mannie) was 12, Laura, 8, Ada, 5, Grace, 2, and Samuel, one month old; their son, Grover, had died in 1889 at the age of four. Kate continued to live on the farm on Mill Creek Road in Warrington Township, PA. My grandmother, Grace Weisel Swartley, once commented about her mother: She kept us together. My grandmother was aware that a less determined mother would have given some of the children to other relatives or families. The siblings remained close throughout their adult lives and took care of their mother in her old age.

Notes for Grace Elizabeth (Stout) Weisel:

Generation 7 (con't)

My stellar Mom, Grace Weisel Swartley, born November 11, 1892, died January 26, 1986, loving, complex, compassionate, workaholic, and a wonderful cook!

She loved being a farmer's wife-flowers were her hobby big time and she had more than two green thumbs. Seeds, bitsy plants grew for her-she had a beautiful semi-formal garden that Mr. Charles Frick, owner of the farm that my Dad was manager of, helped her to create. He had spent a vacation in England. It had three sides, surrounded by a wooden fence and purple and white grapes grew on the fence. It had a sundial in the middle, paths dividing it into quarters, and a cement walk from our house on the fourth side. My father raised celery plants from seeds on fourth side. The celery plants were for sale when they became four inches high, but first he planted a half acre of celery plants with the help of our hired man. My brother Art Jr. and I for several years would drop the plants for these two to plant the plants-it was always over Fourth of July. We started right after breakfast, work til lunch time-it would take two or three days. A couple times if it was a hot, humid day Pop would say after lunch that we could walk to Horsham, get a trolley and go to Doylestown Pool, newly built and practice our swimming. Mr. Frick had given us lessons that summer. They were taught by the football coach at Doylestown High School. Year was 1930.

For late August, Mom would invite her sister Ada, children Edie and Stanley. Edie was my age and Stanley was my brother Chuck's, to go down in woods to pick blackberried, us kids played Indians and hide and seek. Then Mama would make jam, can it for winter. This was the late twenties and early 30s fun days!

There was a full-page article in Philadelphia Inquirer a few days ago telling us about a neighborhood in suburban Philadelphia in the fall, some of them brought plantings and seeds, mainly flowers, trade them with whomever wanted them. Well my Mom would have her sisters and brother and their families after church on Sunday and when dishes were finished, out came the seeds she had collected and then they would walk to her garden and see what the flowers were like that they had chosen. One never spent money on flower seeds! It was the 'depression era.'

Mama had four sisters and one brother. Her mother was widowed at forty-two, so they were a close-knit family! In the summer to make extra money her Mom would take in "boarders," people from Philadelphia who wanted to escape the humid summer, so they would spend a couple weeks in the country. There was train service to Doylestown and Chalfont where my grandmother lived was an easy way to escape the city heat. My older aunts would meet them at the R.R. station in Chalfont. The guests would have the Philadelphia daily papers delivered (especially the Sunday edition), this was the only time my Mom had a paper to read. She so enjoyed the newspapers.

My grandmother always had a large vegetable garden which Uncle Sam and my mother cared for, the sisters helped their Mom can the vegetables and fruit for winter and the garden was a big help to feed the boarders. In the fall Mom and Uncle Sam came home from school, changed clothes, then go out in the cornfield, husk and shock the field corn to feed the stock for the winter. It would be December before it was finished.

Mom's sisters married in late teens or early twenties, left home or moved in with their Weisel grandparents in second home on property (the Mill House), caring for them until they had a child or two, buy a farm, or rent a house and thus moved on. Life was a bit easier but money more scarce!

The mortgage on the farm was due the first of the month. It was about twelve or thirteen dollars per month. Rarely did my grandmother have enough money, so she would send Aunt Laura who was a couple years older than Aunt Ada to "walk" to the next farm to "borrow" from Uncle Phares who was my grandfather's brother the dollar or two that was needed. Aunt Laura was a bit shy and hated to do this. Once in a while he would tell her "never mind returning what you owe." That made her happy to tell her Mom!

Generation 7 (con't)

My Mom was very popular with the young men. Their family were members of the Reformed Church of Pleasantville on Limekiln Pike south of Chalfont. School and church activities and family life took up their spare time. Finally one kept persisting and he won her hand. Arthur Clymer Swartley married Grace Elizabeth Weisel April 5, 1916 at the bride's home and moved into the Swartley farm, paying rent and the groom's parents bought a brick home in Chalfont. They were in the late fifties at that point in time. This was known as Upper Billy's Farm.

P.S. I'm writing this Monday August 8, 2011. I accompanied my Preston to a program this P.M. going in the door I met Lorraine Badger and she said, "Hello Upper Billy." She lives here too but, she is a "Lower Billy." These two men had the same name, William Moyer Swartley, owned adjoining farms, were first cousins and this was the way the townspeople in Chalfont kept them apart! And today both houses are still lived in at the top of hill on Rt. 152. A lot (like "Lower Billy") live in this Franconia area and like us Upper Billys very proud of their story. We discovered our Lower Billy cousins when we moved to Dock Woods Community in 1995. Four generations later!

When I was five my grandfather (Upper Billy) was hit by a car in Chalfont walking to a Fire Co. supper in Forest Park one October evening in 1922 and died a couple days later. One of the first auto deaths via car in Bucks Co. My Dad realized he couldn't live on the farm with two children so he asked around and found millionaire from the city who owned a working farm in Horsham. We moved in March '23. I was six years old and in September I started first grade in Horsham, Montgomery Co.

My parents lived and worked for Mr. Frick till the summer of 1941. It was a wonderful childhood for us three siblings.

They moved to Lansdale and rented a half house at Pop's cousin's farm Irvin and Bertha Swartley and my father's only income was selling chickens and his market route to Mount Airy and Germantown.

The fall of 1944 they bought a home in Chalfont at the intersection of Rts. 202 and 152. My children and I rented a second floor apartment in their home. Preston was drafted into the Navy and was in the submarine service. My Mom created another flower garden-Pop had a large vegetable garden and for several years life was in a war mode... They entertained overnite grandchildren, boys were allowed Pop's Jeep and Mom cooked delicious Christmas and Easter dinners.

During this time in my Mom's life, she became more spiritual in her journey , had a friend named Millie "who taught children Bible classes in homes of middle aged caring believers. She asked her friend to come and teach Art's teenagers and neighbor's children weekly God's plan of Salvation. She always made cookies and healthy drinks for the children. This was her mission at this point in her life.

My Mom's favorite expression was "Waste not, want not!" She had a great faith that God would take care of us and her goal was to talk to her children and grandchildren about Jesus dying for us and the plan of Salvation-and she would see us all in Heaven!

Grace Weisel, A Granddaughter's Remembrance by Bonnie Swartley Martin

I knew her as Nana Swartley. Thinking of her reminds me of how good her kitchen smelled just about any time, but particularly on Saturday morning when she did the baking for the week, and Sunday afternoon after church when my family arrived for dinner. One cold Saturday morning I walked the mile to her house and entered her toasty kitchen. Bread was baking, and it smelled like a little bit of heaven. That morning she served me warm bread just out of the oven, and homemade jam. During this visit she made pudding, pies, cake, cookies, and bread. She did that for Pop Pop, and also so that if anyone walked into her kitchen that week she'd have something to offer them. Her family, friends, and neighbors understood that, and consequently she had many visitors cross the threshold into her kitchen. She was so hospitable. When she was in her 90's and in a nursing home I paid her a visit. As soon as she saw me she said in her welcoming Nana voice, "Oh, it's so good to see you, Bonnie. Here, won't you have a cookie?" She never left the home to shop, so how did she get those cookies? It is said that as one ages, personality traits intensify. In Nana's case that was good news.

Generation 7 (con't)

You knew about her faith in God and Jesus Christ very quickly, because it sustained and guided her every minute of the day. She left vivid images of spirituality in my memory: walking down for a visit one summer day I found her sitting on her porch in the sunshine, reading her Bible; staying for overnights, we saw Nana and Poppop in their nightshirts on their knees by their bed saying their prayers; sitting in the pew next to her in church on a Sunday and listening to her sing the hymns with a fervor born only of profound belief. She lived her faith and witnessed it to others, especially her grandchildren.

Nana was a self-disciplined person. She got up early, I think around 5 am. She always told me to get things done in the morning or the day would be wasted. She was right. She had routines: Monday was for washing, Tuesday for ironing, and.... you get the picture. They had a small farm when I was growing up and I can remember Nana cultivating plants with her favorite cultivating tool. She told me that in order to grow, the plants had to have the weeds removed, and the soil around them had to be dug up and loosened. She said it was the same with people. I've seen her mowing the back yard with a hand mower, on her knees scrubbing the kitchen floor (she actually wore away the top layer of the linoleum), and picking raspberries in the hot sun. Talk about a work ethic!

She was a cheerful person and would whistle as she worked at the kitchen sink. The whistling was often followed by a song: "Whistling girls and crowing hens, Always come to some bad end." She had more wise sayings than Benjamin Franklin, and repeated them often: Waste not, want not; A stitch in time saves nine; Idle hands are the devil's workshop; Cleanliness is next to godliness. It is my opinion that our country's social programs would be infinitely more successful if they would base their actions on Nana's favorite sayings.

She didn't attend school for as long as the required 12 years kids do today. Yet her handwriting, grammar, spelling, and punctuation were far better than many individuals with double the number of years of education she had. I know that because she wrote a lot of letters to me and her other family members away from home. She must have been one smart lady, with a high aptitude in language ability. That aptitude got passed on to quite a few of her relatives.

What can I say about her legendary ability to whip up a Sunday roast chicken dinner complete with stuffing, mashed potatoes, gravy, and lots of vegetables, with pie for dessert? If I were in the degree-granting business, she'd have a Ph D in Cooking Comforting Foods for Families. Decades later my mouth waters just thinking about those Sunday dinners. Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners had more of everything, including pies. The grandchildren would always run to her enclosed front porch to see how many and what kind of pies she'd made for the occasion.

There were so many things to admire about my Nana. She was a hard worker. I have a picture of her in front of her canning cupboard filled with Mason jars of freshly canned peaches, cherries, chow-chow, catsup, watermelon rind, and more. She looked fundamentally tired in that photo. But I never heard her whine or complain. She just did what she had to.

Poppop and Nana were what we call fiscally responsible. They saved for the rainy days that are inevitable in all of our lives. The concept of the credit card was foreign to them. If they didn't have enough money to buy something, they didn't buy it. Self-pity was not in their vocabulary. How much better if we could embrace that idea.

Nana was a blessing in my life. And one of the most endearing things about her was that she was always glad to see me. Thinking about that makes me realize that there are many people in this world who can't say that about anyone in their lives. It's a pity. She died 15 years ago, in 1986. She was 92 and I was 43 years old. The years haven't dimmed my memories of her. It feels like she's still guiding me. I can still hear her whistling, see her reading the Bible, and kneeling in prayer by the bedside. When I see people headed down the wrong path, headed for alcoholism, or drug addiction, or worse, it makes me feel so sorry for them. If they'd had a grandmother like mine they'd know the way they ought to be taking. As long as there is breath in my body I will be grateful that Grace Weisel was my grandmother.

Sharon's Memories of Nana

Generation 7 (con't)

Sharon was the wife of Grace Weisel's grandson, E. Preston Stover III

I would like to tell you how I felt about Nana. My earliest memories of her were when Pres took me to her house, perhaps at Christmastime break, our senior year. She was so welcoming and kind, and I felt so "sucked in" to stability and security in her old house that had seen so much family, so many occasions, so many feelings, so many events. Her house was definitely an extension of her--the atmosphere was hers. That's all I took in when I was maybe 20. I have the most wonderful memories of the weekends Pres and I would drive up from Baltimore the first year we were married. We'd take Conchi, a puppy, and Nana would pamper that dog, make a bed for her in the kitchen, take her out early in the morning, give her green beans for breakfast!

The times I got to know Nana the best were when we were alone in her kitchen, doing dishes and cleaning up. After drying dishes, I'd sit on the bench by the window at her table and she would be working on something or cooking--I loved just listening to her. She was so special in that she seemed so content and happy and wise. And she genuinely loved me and my being there with her--I knew it. She always shared her faith and would speak of God; she always seemed to know the path she should be taking--Nana seemed to always have her priorities straight and in order.

How many times later on in subsequent visits she'd be busy reaching out to someone else--usually I remember her reaching out with a meal to someone at church, or Auntie Sykes. Nana seemed so kind and compassionate.

She treated me as "one of hers" from the beginning--I loved it. The highlight was when she visited Portsmouth. It just delighted both Pres and me to have her in our home--our home with so many of her things. She lovingly went around touching her things and said so many times how good it made her feel.

But nothing was as pleasant as bringing our children to visit her in her apartment after the house was sold. Will any of them forget her chewing on arms? She would always rave about how cute, healthy, and smart they were--they thrived on it; so did I.

Even as she forgot who we were, the best part of Nana remained--she loved seeing us and was, as ever, joyful. She always counted her blessings, never seemed to see anything grim. What a gift she had to make people feel so glad to be with her; and oh, to have known someone like her! I will miss her terribly. But I know the Lord has her and that she is, like always, praising Him and happy to be with Him. Somehow I know she's holding Jennifer (Sharon and Pres' daughter)- she and Pop.
Lovingly, Sharon

Happiness is:

Visiting Nana and Poppop and watching her bite your arm from the wrist to the elbow, and at the same time, wonder what makes grandmothers do that.
Spending Christmas day at their house, and have Unk (Uncle Charles) pass out all the Christmas presents.
Dressing up all of Beckie's kittens and then playing with them on the beds.
Climbing the big berry tree to the tree house, only to fall out of the tree every time I got up.
Going up to Nana's attic and looking in all of the boxes and drawers to see what we could find.
Having Popop give you a ride on the jeep.
Watching Nana, Popop and Unk kill and clean the chickens and finding an unlaidd egg inside.
Eating all my bread crusts because Popop said it would give me curly hair--it never did.
Watching Popop take out his false teeth and scaring Preston.
Cutting all Nana's tulips because they were so pretty. That didn't make her happy though.
Having Nana give Bonnie, Susie and myself a bath--only, not in front of Aggie (Agnes Detweiler, Nana's friend who never had any children).
Having Nana make the fire engine sound.
Having Nana or Popop go down to the basement with you, when you were too scared to go down yourself.
Going to church with Nana and Popop and having Nana let you sit in church and eat all her lifesavers.

Generation 7 (con't)

Waking Popop when he would always fall asleep in the living room on Christmas day.

Getting out the blocks and playing with them on the floor.

Eating Thanksgiving dinner at Nana's house.

Finally being able to eat enough food so that you rate using a big dinner plate rather than the tiny plates I always got.

Sliding down the banister--and not having Nana and Popop yell at you.

Playing hide and seek with Bob, Bonnie, Susie and Billy upstairs and not have Mommy yell at you.

Going out to the front porch at Christmas time and seeing all the goodies Nana baked just for us to eat.

Sitting out on the front lawn with Popop and hearing him yell and talk to all the people as they drove by.

Having Nana and Popop come out and visit us--and bring lots of hoagies and scrapple.

From Suzanne Fellman Jacob:

A Brief History of the J. D. C.

Generation 7 (con't)

July 20, 1917

About ten years ago seven Mill Creek School girls decided to form a club. We planned to meet at the homes of the various members and have jolly good time once a month. There were a few more girls that we wished to have join with us, as the more the merrier.

The Mill Creek girls comprised the following - Florence Haldeman, Lillis Clymer, Grace Weisel, Jennie Martin, Alma Weisel, Ethel Wiser, and Minerva Clymer. The girls that we asked from County Line were Mae Kohler, Blanche White, Maria Hoover, and Estella Perry. Ethel Garges of Warrington school also joined us. These girls were the old original J. D. C. The Jolly Dozen Club.

Florence Haldeman represents the kindness and goodness
Lillis Clymer, the humor and nonsense
Grace Weisel, the smiles
Jennie Martin the gayety
Alma Weisel, the dignity
Ethel Wiser, the wisdom (being "Wiser")
Maria Hoover, the statliness [sic]
Estleea Perry, the sarcasm
Ethel Garges, the meekness
Mae Kohler, the brilliancy and wit
Blance White, the daintiness and mock modesty
Minerva Clymer (As a Court must have its jester, so a club must have its fool)

Mae was selected president by she never presided. Minerva, the secretary, though no minutes were ever recorded except by the clock. Estella was treasurer, but never a bit of money did she see, for what cared we for our club. We spent our money for candy and grub. We did save enough money however, to buy pins, with J.C.C. engraved upon them. The pins were speedily lost.

Later Warrington's heavy weight and Montgomery's light weights joined our ranks and later still Sara Weisel and Sadie and Ethel Foraker. The weights referred to are heavy Anna Stucker, light-Vivian Weidner.

Our new members are Miss Pearl Weisel, who has kindly consented to give a report of the meetings to the Public Spirit for publication. We hope that she will not be arrested for giving false reports; as they appear fine and may heaven forgive her.

Mrs. Edith White and Mabel White add much with their pleasing personalities and good looks and also in avoirdupois for we need quantity as well as quality. We are glad to have Helen Stemple with us as she is one of the most popular girls on Water Street. She is a mud-gutter blonde with a rippling figure and her sweet disposition adds much to her charm.

We were quite young when we formed the club and we were teased and jollied about it a great deal. Folks said that it would not last long, but using a slang expression "we fooled um." Later as we grew older we still looked upon our club as our play time and folks said that we young women were wasting our time. We bravely faced all criticism and sailed along for the past ten years. Look what time has brought to us - such brilliant careers, marriages, and brave endeavors.

Florence is a grand cook and a crack soloist, she also devotes much time and takes great delight in "Art."

Lillis and Alma were our first girls to marry and they say that marriage is a pottery for making family jars.

Grace is an excellent house-keeper and has secured a life position at that job.

Jennie the Belle of the club and a noted flirt. Long ago a little bird told me "Quakertown is where Jen shines." Poor girl, now she shines silver at Bates!

Alma was organist at Pleasantville Church until she married and now she plays lullaby songs at home.

Generation 7 (con't)

Mae, Sara, Estella, Blanche and Ethel Wiser are excellent school teachers. Blanche is going to cast her career aside for a mere man. Ethel gradually drifted out of club, she only drifts in on the picnics.

Maria who have had the public career as a figure in Mrs. Jarley's Waxworks, preferred a man instead.

Ethel Garges is a great temperance worker and she married a man prominent in that work also.

Both of them belong to the W.C.T.U., L.T.L., Y.P.B., and C.E.C.

Vivian is our sport girl. She is married now and says that it's the best sport of all.

Ethel Foraker became a trained nurse and then like the fairy stories of old, one day in sunny July turned into a "Harrar."

Sadie is one of our gifted members, her southern birth shows in her warm hospitality and charming manner. She sings sweetly, dances divinely and wears a one and one half shoe. When Sam needs spanking she uses her father's too.

Now after ten years, we have reorganized upon a firmer base and as our club consists of such smart material and with our very capable leader and the cooperation of each and everyone and with our vain endeavor to do good such as the Red Cross work, our club should mean more to us than ever before.

The following was written by Win Weisel, the son of Samuel (1895-1986).

Note: Samuel W. Weisel was a grandson of Samuel and Catharine Kober Weisel. His parents were Kate Stout and Franklin Weisel.

Born on March 30, 1895, Sam had a very interesting young life under the guidance of his widowed mother Kate and his five sisters - Manny, Mabel, Laura, Ada, and Grace - all of whom made sure he toed the line. You could feel a little sorry for him, particularly when he was locked in a closet as punishment for some misdeed. It's no wonder that he would run out to the barn and hide in the feed chest. One time he ran out of the house and fell into the mill race that was getting full after a rain. He feared that he would drown - and he didn't like getting wet ever after.

Sam attended the one-room Mill Creek School along with his sisters and several cousins. Bob Stover, Preston Stover's [Jr.] first cousin (and Win's high school class president), said that his mother, a teacher at Mill Creek School, used to talk all the time about Sam Weisel and his sisters. As he grew up, Sam had boy friends that he palled around with - Norman Lap, Sam Clymer, Laurence Kratz, among others - and then a girl friend, Teresa Moyer. Although her name was spelled T E R E S A, she was always called "Tressa". She was a few years older than Sam, having been born on October 23, 1891, and very pretty, judging by her photos. Sam's horse, Major, and a convertible buggy wagon provided transportation to and from the Moyer farm on Neshaminy Creek, near Chalfont. He often came home pretty late and usually would fall asleep on the way, but Major knew the road so well that he would pull into the barn yard and under the shed where he would be sheltered, leaving Sam asleep outside in the wagon. Things were getting pretty serious with Teresa. By this time all of his sisters were married and had left home.

Sam popped the question, Miss Moyer consented, and on April 27, 1917, Sam and Teresa were married. They agreed to live in the Weisel house, with Kate living in the far end of the home so that Sam could look after his mother's needs. The following year, Teresa and Sam had a baby boy, Winfred, and the next year a baby girl, Evelyn.

Sam was kept busy with his family and looking after his mother, as well as working the farm and doing some road repair work for Warrington Township. Nearly all of the rural roads were of loose gravel and with heavy use, the gravel wound up in the gutters. With Sam operating a large steam tractor and Uncle Elmer Clymer operating the towed scraper, they pulled the gravel back into the center of the road bed.

Sam also had a Fordson tractor and plow that he used to till the Weisel farm, as well as neighboring farms, when needed. The Fordson tractor had to be cranked and, at times, it was contrary. He said it would make a preacher swear to get it started.

Sam enjoyed his young son, taking him along nearly everywhere he went. When he was in the barn feeding and caring for the horses and cows, Winnie was usually traipsing along behind him. Soimetmes Dad would hide from his son and play tricks that made him cry. Winnie loved to play around the farm machinery, particularly the tractor. One time, while climbing into the tractor seat, he slipped and hit his head on the tractor wheel cleats, cutting a gash in his forehead that required a number of stitches. He still has the scar on his forehead today.

When Winnie was old enough to go to the Mill Creek School, his dad would take him in the Dodge touring car. Soon he was able to walk to school except when it rained or snowed. One day when it looked a little threatening, Dad told Winnie to walk and, if it started to rain, he would come and take him. When Winnie was only about 50 yards from the school, it started to pour. He turned around to see if Dad was behind him, and he was. Instead of running to school, he ran back so that he had a dry ride. The next year, Winnie was more at ease going to school because he had his little sister Evelyn to take along.

Sam and Teresa had their hands full with their two children. The kitchen was the living room in those days, particularly in winter. The coal- or wood-fired range provided heating for the room, cooking of the food, and boiling of water for tea or coffee, as well as hot water for bathing and laundry. Teresa would set up a 36" diameter galvanized tub with about 5 inches of hot water for Evelyn and Winnie to take their Saturday night baths. The kitchen range also heated the bricks or irons that were put into beds for warmth, since there were no heated rooms other than the kitchen. The outhouse was the only toilet, except for potties that were kept in the bedrooms at night and emptied in the morning. China basins and pitchers full of water rested on the bureaus for washing; at times, the water in the pitchers had a coating of ice.

On May 17, 1921, Teresa delivered another baby girl called Eleanor. That kitchen was getting more crowded. One day as they were sitting at the kitchen table eating lunch, Winnie looked out the rear window and saw Burt Wilguess' barn going up in flames. They were close neighbors of the Weisel farm. It was a very frightening event - a total loss, as no water was available for the fire engines to fight the blaze.

In 1925, Kate Weisel and her family decided to sell the Weisel homestead. After that, Granny Kate would take turns living with her children. Sam, Teresa, and family moved to the Moyer farm in Chalfont after the Weisel property was sold. What a change it was to be living in the Moyer house, with electric lights, hot and cold running water, a bathroom, and heated bedrooms. Sam helped Grandpop Moyer and Uncle Enos work the 130-acre Moyer farm with its horses, cattle, chickens, and a large orchard.

One problem was finding a school. Evelyn and Winnie were sent to the one-room New Britain School, but it was very crowded. The next year, they went to Iron Hill School, another one-room school that was much more satisfactory. Mrs. Mason, the teacher, lived near the school and brought hot soup and sandwiches for her students' lunch. The only problem was the school bus, a one ton Model T Ford truck with a covered body and curtains. The pupils sat on the straw-covered floor that was used for all kinds of farm chores and hauling. The next year, Winnie and Evelyn were switched from Iron Hill School to New Galena, a two-room school north of Chalfont, with which they were very happy.

On May 18, 1926, baby Harold was found in a bureau drawer in Teresa's bedroom. This was a trick that Aunt Mary, Teresa's sister, a Registered Nurse who had helped deliver Harold, played on the kids. Winnie, Evelyn, and Eleanor were quite surprised to see that little boy in a lower bureau drawer. He sure learned how to cry in a hurry! Winnie remembers that it was his job to rock the coach to keep Harold quiet.

In 1928, Sam and Teresa rented a house in Horsham. Sam worked on the Frick Farm, helping Art Swartley [Art Swartley Sr. was the husband of Sam's older sister, Grace] do the farming. Eleanor, Evelyn, and Winnie went to Horsham School. Winnie was in the 4th grade, with Modesta Abbott Weisel as his teacher. After elementary school, they walked to and from Hatboro High School, two and a half miles away, every school day.

In 1940, Sam and Teresa bought a Cape Cod house on Edge Hill Road in Ardsley, PA. Sam took a job with Tyson's Sairies and worked there about seven years. One Sunday, after church, he talked with a church friend who told him about a job opening at the S.L. Allen manufacturing plant in Philadelphia. S.L. Allen built Flexible Flyer sleds in the summer and garden tools in the winter. After an interview, Sam was hired as a stock room clerk. He was assigned to the steel stock store room. Prior to his hiring, the company had a problem with steel inventory shortages. With his help, they were able to correct it, and credited him with rectifying the problem.

Generation 7 (con't)

Sam retired in 1966, at the age of 71, to enjoy life and do some traveling. He, Teresa, and her sister Millie Moyer enjoyed two wonderful trips out west. They had bought a 1957 black and white Dodge sedan especially for traveling. Sam called that car his Holstein car. When Win and his family were transferred from Philadelphia to Roanoke, Virginia, his Dad and Mom were their first out-of-state visitors in May of 1966.

Sam and Teresa loved their 514 Edge Hill Road home. They had a wonderful truck garden that grew prize vegetables. It was the envy of the neighborhood. Sam traded vegetables from his garden for meat at the butcher and gas at the gas station. Teresa's flower garden was equally spectacular. During these years, as their grandchildren grew up and great-grandchildren came along, Teresa sang German lullabies to the little ones and Sam enjoyed dressing up as Santa. At family gatherings, Sam was always the life of the party, with poems and limericks for all occasions and a twinkle in his eye that was contagious. Teresa was known for making wonderful meals - her coconut pies were especially delicious. She also grew dozens of beautiful African violets on a shelf in her dining room.

As the years passed, however, Teresa had a stroke which caused her difficulty in walking and making her wishes known. Sam cared for her and even learned some cooking skills. His health was deteriorating too, though. His doctors eventually advised him to have hip replacement surgery, as his hip had become too painful to walk. In preparation for the operation, Sam was told to take a shower and wash down as well. He replied that he couldn't take a shower - he might drown. He had never forgotten the time he fell into the mill race on the Weisel homestead! Eventually, Win and Harold went into the shower with him to make sure he was clean and that he wouldn't drown.

Sam's operation corrected his hip pain, but the anesthesia left him with some dementia. He and Teresa were cared for in a nursing home in Glenside until their deaths, Teresa's in 1984 and Sam's in 1986. Their family remembers them with great love and affection.

Following submitted by: Linda Weisel Keys, Sam's granddaughter

Hunting was a sport which Sam and Harold enjoyed on many occasions. When Harold was 14 years of age, and not old enough to carry a gun, the family would go to the Moyer farm for Thanksgiving Dinner. After dinner they would drive to Norman Kratz's farm and walk back to the Moyer farm while hunting all the way.

Later on the Tyson farm where Sam worked was an enjoyable hunting location. Sam liked to play practical jokes on people so at lunch time one day he went out and shot a rabbit. He brought it back, dressed it, and stuffed the hide with paper. He then planted it on a tuft of grass. When the part-time worker came back from lunch there was that rabbit out on that tuft of grass. Sam told the worker the rabbit was on it's nest, why didn't he shoot it. So he took a shot and hit the rabbit only to see paper fly everywhere. One of Sam's favorite tricks you see.

Another time at Laurence Kratz's farm in Bradford County, Sam, Harold, and our long time Pastor Thomkins, who married Eleanor and Bill, as well as Harold and Lola, went hunting for grouse and deer. Sam and Pastor Thomkins slept in the same room. That night Sam heard a lot of noise and woke up to find Pastor Thomkins moving furniture around the room. The next morning Sam got to breakfast and asked Pastor Thomkins about the furniture moving. Pastor didn't remember the incident at all and apparently was moving in his sleep.

As the years went by a threesome formed of Sam, Harold and Ken which was three generations. They then hunted on the Keller farm in Plumsteadville. At lunch time they would drive up to the Dublin Orchard and buy their supply of apples. Ken was made to eat many an apple by Grandpop Sam. So many, in fact, that Ken claims he hasn't eaten an apple since.

One day on the way home from the Keller Farm, Sam wanted to stop for cornmeal mush. At the General Store Sam goes in and asks the young lady for mush. She asked, "Is that dog food?" Sam said, "I guess a dog could eat it but I wanted it for myself."

Generation 7 (con't)

The last time Sam went hunting with Harold and Ken he was 82 years old. The practical jokes have not stopped with Sam, as my brother Ken has continued the tradition. A couple of years ago Ken and I were walking through a shopping mall and suddenly I turned and Ken was gone. I found him in the display window at JC Penney's where he was standing as a mannequin. Of course I was yelling for him to come out of the window, and thought shoppers would be laughing at him but, oh no. They were laughing at me talking to a mannequin because Ken was very convincing.

One of my fond memories of Sam was when the family would gather at his home for a holiday or just a Sunday afternoon. The men would begin talking about cars and sooner or later Sam would say:

"My auto 'tis of thee sweet land of poverty of thee I chant.
I spent a pile of dough on you three weeks ago now you refuse to go or won't or can't."

Elaine bought Sam's last car, the Dodge 440 called, of course, the 440. Elaine would go visit Sam in that car and take him his favorite cookies from his recipe, which was a vanilla wafer with two M&M's in each one.

Sam loved entertaining during family gatherings and one of his favorite sayings was:

"I wish I was a little rock a sittin' on a hill doin' nothing all day long just a sittin' still.
I wouldn't eat, I wouldn't work, I wouldn't even wash.
I'd sit there just a thousand years and rest myself by gosh."

Traditions have continued in our family, with my niece named Kate Weisel. We also have another Sam Weisel, but he couldn't be here today because he's Kate's cat.

Grandmom Teresa grew beautiful flowers with which she decorated Wharton Baptist Church pulpit for many years. Her gladiolus were admired from far and wide. Inside the house her African violets and gloxinias flourished. To see what Grandmom was like you only have to watch the mannerisms of my sister Elaine. Elaine is the most godly woman I know, just like Grandmom was.

Notes for Robert W. Weisel:

Robert was born out-of-wedlock. His mother Mary Ann married for the first time when he was about 7 years old. He was never adopted by his mother's husband William H. Detweiler, and retained the Weisel name throughout his life. Though his mother gave birth to a son and two daughters after her marriage, Robert was the only one of the four to have children of his own. An older relative who knew both Robert and his mother, said they both suffered from the stigma of the circumstances of his birth throughout their lifetimes.

Notes for Lawrence Wesley (Weisel) Kratz:
From KRATZ FAMILY HISTORY by Herbert E. Kratz
Nash Printing Inc., Lansdale, Pa.
copyright 1982

"He was auto mechanic as young man and a rugged individualist with a pioneer spirit. He and his new bride took a three month wedding trip to California in a 1926 Model T ford and visited many national parks and other points of interest. He then farmed in Bucks Co., PA many years. Purchased a farm in Bradford Co., PA where he farmed until retirement. Leola grad. at Lock Haven St. Normal School and taught school for many years. In later years they resided in Florida in winter months and Pennsylvania in summer months. Now res. at Norristown, PA Four children."

Program for A Service of Worship in Celebration of the Life of Lawrence W. Kratz, Pleasantville Church, Chalfont, PA, January 28, 1985:

Lawrence Wesley Kratz, son of the late Norman and Mabel Weisel Kratz, was born on April 22, 1903, in Chalfont. He lived on the family farm with his older brother Willard; his younger brothers, Norman and Herbert, and his sisters, Kathryn, Margaret and Frances.

Lawrence rode his bicycle or walked across the fields to Mill Creek School. He was a pleasant boy and everyone liked him.

As a young man he left school and worked with his father on the farm. Later, he left the farm to work with automobiles as they became more popular and numerous. He worked in an automobile assembly plant in North Wales and as a mechanic in an automobile agency. He never lost his interest in cars - his, yours and everybody's.

In 1926 Lawrence married Leola Faye Griswold, who had come from Brookside, Lycoming County to teach in the one-room Babylon School in Prospectville. After their marriage Lawrence returned to farming, the occupation that was to be his until he retired in 1968. Lawrence and Leola lived on several farms and in 1929 built their first house on Upper State Road. In 1951 they moved to Rome, Bradford County, where he farmed until their retirement. He never stopped gardening, with gardens in Florida, Norristown, Eureka and East Greenville. He shared his produce with many people!

Following retirement, Leola and Lawrence spent a year in the Franklinton Center in Bricks, North Carolina as volunteers in the missionary program of the United Church of Christ.

When they left Bricks, the Kratzes moved to Manchester, York County, Pennsylvania, where they lived for six years. In 1975 they became residents of Jefferson Apartments in Norristown. For several years they also owned a home near Brooksville, Florida.

Lawrence and Leola Kratz had four children - Mabel Carolyn, Mary Alice, Daniel G. and Lawrence G. Carolyn and Dan were ordained into the Christian ministry in 1953 and 1957 respectively. Mary and Larry are also very active members of the United Church of Christ. There are twelve grandchildren and four great grandchildren. In 1968 the Kratzes were deeply saddened by Carolyn's sudden death.

From his early childhood the church was an important part of Lawrence Kratz's life. He supported whole-heartedly whatever programs and goals the church pursued. He quietly worked for and at the church - helping, repairing, babying the bus, pumping the pipe organ, teaching a Sunday School class and serving on the official board of every congregation to which he belonged. There was never any question in his mind about church attendance. On Sunday morning after polishing shoes, everyone went to church.

One of the joys in the lives of Lawrence and Leola was their pleasure in traveling. In 1926, with a new Model T Ford, they travelled across uncharted roads to the west coast of the United States. In celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary in 1966 they repeated the trip. They also toured Mexico with a United Church of Christ caravan. They travelled in many states and several islands of the Caribbean. Lawrence loved to share his snapshots of their trips with anyone who cared to see them.

Another of his joys was hunting and fishing. He enjoyed being at the Otter Run Hunt and Fisj Club which he helped establish and develop. He also enjoyed talking about his hunting experiences.

His family, his church and his work were the responsibilities and pleasures in the life of Lawrence Kratz. To all people he was pleasant, warm and friendly. All of his life he lived the words of the hymn, "I would be friend, of all..."

Generation 8 (con't)

On January 24, 1985, after a difficult bout with cancer, Lawrence Wesley Kratz died.

On June 21, 2014, Reba was remembered by family members on facebook. These comments were posted.

Joy Clymer: Remembering my adventurous, mischievous, outrageous, creative and fun-loving Aunt Reba today. She was like a splash of vibrant red (her favorite color) wherever she went! She would have been 65 today. Hard to believe it's been almost 5 years since she left us. Love and miss you, Rebsie!!

Matt McWilliams: Happy Birthday to my best friend, advice giver, listen to your complaining roommate and Aunt anyone could ever have or had. She made [me] who I am today. I'm sure I couldn't have done this without her pushing me to better myself and stop being afraid of the world around me. I could go on with a list of things she did for me. I miss her so much every single day, sometimes photos just don't cut it, but it will have to do. RIP...Rebes, never forgotten always remembered, love u.

Joanna Clymer Wyman: I've been thinking of her all day. Thank you for posting, Joy. Being with her felt like being in the presence of true love and the pure joy of being alive.

He died on 18 Nov 2013 in Dock Woods Community, Lansdale, PA.

Notes for Elizabeth Winifred (Weisel) Swartley:

This article appeared in November 2001 in the Dock Woods Times (in PA) .

Among the Dock Woods couples who recently celebrated wedding anniversaries of 60 or more years was Preston and Elizabeth Stover, who were married 61 years ago, on Thanksgiving Day

Generation 8 (con't)

1940. Looking at their wedding portrait, taken at Pleasantville Reformed Church in Chalfont, Bucks County, Elizabeth says "we were pretty young, but Preston had a job in a local meat packing business in Richboro. I was a registered nurse, but only did a bit of private duty, and we felt mature and confident that whatever came our way we would manage with God's help. But the war came along- we had a 3-year-old, and another child on the way- and Preston was drafted and joined the submarine force. With the support of both sets of our parents, we walked through the two years of separation. Time seemed to stand still, as it did for everyone. We missed so much, but God rejoined us and doors opened. Preston became a cameraman for a fledgling station in Philadelphia."

A Mission of Faith

On September 14, 2002 Elizabeth Stover was the guest of honor at the 30th anniversary celebration of the Mulberry Senior Center, Inc. She is the only living member of the original committee that founded this ministry which has impacted many people in practical and spiritual ways. She writes "Two hundred and forty people were present at a gala, inspiring, fun-packed luncheon to honor this center that has touched thousands of lives. For me it was an emotional testimony of what God can do if we but pray for His will to be accomplished in our lives."

Here is the story of what God accomplished through her faith and her faithful works.

One July day in 1972 four disinterested individuals were asked to meet with our pastor to discuss his "new venture." We were a retired school teacher, a retired business man, a social worker and a nurse, the latter two unemployed. It took several meetings before we realized this venture was going to be a mission of our pastor and our church.

Mulberry Presbyterian Church was one of twenty-six churches in this suburb of Pittsburgh, Pa., where thirty thousand people lived. Our pastor felt its facilities could be used for the elderly to meet, have lunch, make crafts, play cards, study the Bible, etc. This was five years before federally funded Senior Centers became the norm. The Salvation Army was the only place that had a soup kitchen in all of western Pennsylvania, and it was for the homeless.

Our pastor wanted our Center to be opened by mid-September and, since he was going on vacation, I was "in charge." By now we were involved spiritually and emotionally- "we prayed without ceasing." Since it was evident there were no guidelines for what was now our passion, GOD answered abundantly- far beyond our expectations. Programs fell into our laps and today most of them, plus lots more, are still intact. Our pastor had requested Bible Study on a regular basis and, in talking to the Salvation Army Commander, he cautioned us not to accept federal funds as we couldn't have Bible study or prayer time. To this day the Center is totally independent.

We opened with much fanfare on September 18, 1972, inviting the Seniors of the town to a free lunch and program at the Mulberry Presbyterian Church. One hundred and thirty-eight responded and we were open three six-hour days weekly. Members of the Catholic church across the street were encouraged to attend by their priest and become an active part of the Center. News spread by word of mouth.

Today there are three hundred names on the roster, the Center is open four days a week and it's known as the Mulberry Senior Center Inc. A full time director was hired a few weeks after it opened; eighty to a hundred are served lunch daily, and Bible Study and prayer are the drawing power. Lives have been touched and changed.

Elizabeth and her brother Arthur were both born in Chalfont, PA, in a farmhouse on Limekiln Pike (Route 152) north of the village of Chalfont. It is no longer accessible from Route 152. The address is 29 Marian Circle, Chalfont 18914. It sits in the midst of a development built in the fields of the old Swartley farm. The house may have been built by John Rosenberger Swartley (1792-1856), Elizabeth's 2nd great grandfather. When Elizabeth's grandfather, William Moyer Swartley, the owner of the house, was killed in a car-pedestrian accident in November 1922, her family was forced to move. They lived for many years as tenant farmers for Charles Frick in Horsham, PA at Walnut Grove Farm.

Written by Bonnie Swartley Martin, daughter of Arthur, niece of Elizabeth.

Five Hundred Bushels of Potatoes Per Acre Club

In the 1930's my father belonged to an agriculture association made up of a dozen local farmers. The goal of this association was to get five hundred bushels of potatoes to an acre. There was to be one winner each year. During this time there was a spray developed to spray on the potato plants, cutting down on the worms and bugs that depreciated the potato vine. Norman Kratz, Jr., a nephew of my parents, was a junior at Ursinus College. He had converted an old Model T car into a sprayer and was being hired by most farmers to care for their plants. In 1937 my Dad won the Five-hundred Bushel per Acre award. Such rejoicing at our house. One bad feature, however, was the fact my mom was required to cook a meal for the rest of the farmers in the association: because my dad had won he had to entertain the losers. My mom was a wonderful cook and baker. She decided to serve duck. She boiled four ducks in our copper wash container to get rid of the fat. After boiling them, the ducks were wiped dry and placed in an oven to bake. They were delicious. Since I was away in nursing school and was unable to help her, my mom asked Kathryn Kratz, her niece and Norman's sister, to help her. Kathryn was in college and anxious to make some money, so she was the waitress for this event. A great time was had by all.

We Knew We Were at War

Twice my dear husband, Evan Preston Stover Jr., was rejected from the military because we had a child. The third time he was drafted and I was already four months pregnant with our second baby. Both our parents stored our furniture and each month our son, Preston, and I spent a month staying with each set of parents. They treated us well, but towards the last week of each month both mothers were weepy and distressed. We were stressful and cramped their lifestyle.

My dear husband was in the Navy and to make a bit more money to send home to us he chose the submarine service. One test that he passed was getting into an elevator with other sailors, having water pumped in, filling the elevator up to the tip of their noses and holding that position for several minutes. One sailor "wanted out", so the water was lowered, the sailor walked out and the test started over again. That sailor was out of the submarine division for failing the test.

My sailor was sent to Quartermaster School in Biloxi, Mississippi. About this time our daughter, Anita Claire, decided to come into the world. This was on Sunday, September 10, 1944. My folks had already left for church. I called the pastor and my folks hurried home to Lansdale. Pop had a thirteen-year-old four-door aqua-colored Dodge sedan. It was a sunny 92-degree day and as we were driving to the hospital the police stopped us on Rte. 309 at Fort Washington to let the Presbyterian congregation at that church cross the road to the parking lot. Our car stopped running, and Pop couldn't get it started again. About this same time I started having "bearing down" contractions so we asked the police to take me to Chestnut Hill Hospital, which was closer, instead of Women's Medical Hospital where I was scheduled to deliver and where my female OB doctor was waiting for me. Our daughter was born while I was on a gurney in the elevator taking us to the fourth floor maternity unit. The police, my father, and the elevator operator were the only ones in attendance with me. As we reached the fourth floor, my dad was heard to say, "Sis, you have a little girl".

Generation 8 (con't)

I had read in the newspaper that after a baby is born in the hospital, a Red Cross aide comes in and the new Daddy is called and the wife tells him the news. When the Red Cross aide came onto the ward where I was, there were about four new mothers. I gave the aide the telephone number for Preston, then she asked me the rank of my husband. I said Seaman First Class. She simply stated that they only call officers, so my husband didn't hear until Tuesday afternoon, two days later, that his daughter was here.

I hemorrhaged Sunday night after delivering. The hospital didn't allow female doctors to practice there, so the next morning they held an emergency Board of Directors meeting to allow my female doctor to come in to take care of me. This hospital at that time had no OB doctors working there, and the female OB doctors had been trying to get approval to practice there for some time. After the Board of Directors meeting, they were now allowed to practice there. Anita received a thank you note from the hospital, thanking her for being born there. In our many moves since that time I have lost that note.

Because I had hemorrhaged after delivery, the hospital called Pop and said I needed a blood transfusion. They told him to bring four or five men in to give blood. Pop did that, one of the men was in his twenties, Ted Wilson, who was same blood type and qualified as a donor. He was Conard Arnold, Pop's friend and the oldest of the group. Conrad was put on a stretcher, wheeled to my bed and we were connected with a catheter and when my cheeks became pink they disconnected the catheter. I was in the hospital for 18 days. I had insurance that Preston and I took out at five dollars a month when we were married. The baby was not insured, so the hospital charged us a dollar a day for her. My bill at discharge was eighteen dollars.

Now with two children I received $100 a month. With one child it was $80 a month. Our only social life was church and family visits and dinners. A few months later Preston's cousin, Jim Cadwallader, got tickets for the play "Oklahoma", fresh from Broadway, with the same cast, and Jim took me. We did enjoy the play. Jim also sent me a dozen yellow roses when Anita was born. These gestures of love and caring helped all of us to stay stable and hopeful and of course our faith that our Heavenly Father would sustain and care for us.

By now Preston was now on Midway Island. I would get two or three letters at once, so he numbered them, then I waited four or five weeks to hear again. After one very long wait I received a letter. He started out by writing he had nothing to talk about so he was telling me he was out by the Pacific Ocean, sitting on a sand dune watching the "gooney birds". They would run down the dune and then take off flying a short distance, very cumbersome birds, making a harsh sound. It was a two- page letter. It really was hilarious and enlightening after reading it he signed it "with love". I tore it up. I felt so lonely and unloved and sad. What a pity party I enjoyed that day.

My brother, Arthur, was also in the Navy. Now the war is officially over, it was January 1946 and my sister-in-law was expecting their third child. I had read in the newspaper the Red Cross had an office in Willow Grove set up to help families with problems. I told Ida I would borrow Pop's car and take her and her two children plus my two children and visit the Red Cross office. I made an appointment. The office was small, just a davenport, few chairs and a desk. I told Ida to let the children do whatever they wanted to do. My son Preston and her son Bob were four years old and did those two ever act up. They were walking across the top of the davenport and jumping. The young Red Cross girl was overwhelmed and said she would definitely take care of the problem, which was to get my brother released from the Navy quickly. Both he and Preston were in California earning "points" to be discharged. A week later my brother was discharged home. My man didn't get home until March 1946.

When my man did come home the Christmas tree was still up and decorated, although it had no needles. For a month my ever lovin' took walks, wanted to be alone, needed "space". It took awhile to unite and blend and bond with a new daughter. Preston contacted Friehofer's Bakery where a job awaited him, paying $38 a week. That was a lot of money on those days. He was also contacted by Clarence Thoman, an old friend from high school, who worked for WPTZ- TV in Philadelphia. The station was owned by Philco Corp. We talked about what he wanted to do. Philco only paid $32 a week. He wanted to take the TV job, which was as a cameraman. We told our parents of our decision and both sets were opposed to it. TV was a new business, would it last? It was a rough few weeks for us. Preston was hired and started April 1, 1946 and was in the television business for 30 years.

Gradually, love and prayers and our Heavenly Father rebonded us together. We have had a fantastic life together. We learned so much, and had wonderful parents to guide us along the way. What a journey!

MIRACLE NEW DRUG "SULFA" TREATS CHARLES' PNEUMONIA

I came home from school one winter day in 1937 and my seven year old brother Charles William Swartley, was quite ill with a high temperature and pneumonia. I called Dr. Frick's office at Temple and was told to bring my brother to Temple Hospital in Philadelphia, where I was a second year nursing student. My brother was admitted to the hospital, very seriously ill, and the head pediatrician was his doctor. After tests and chest x-ray were done, the doctor approached my parents and said he wanted a private duty nurse around the clock. This was going to cost my parents six dollars per every eight hours. This was a lot of money to my parents as my father was making sixty dollars a month as manager of the farm where they lived.

The doctor told me he had a colleague on New York City who was participating in a new medication study for pneumonia. The medication was Sulfa, and this colleague was going to send some for my brother. The drug was being sent via train; an envelope was to be given to the conductor of a Philadelphia train and a doctor was to meet the train at N. Broad Street Station. The medication was received from the conductor and he was tipped for this service. (A lot of business was done this way at this time.) The medication envelope had instructions for taking the medication, but the doctor was guessing on how much to give my brother. The sulfa was dark gray powder and a 1/3-teaspoon was placed in a small amount of water. The instructions were vague and my brother vomited after each dose, but the doctor believed he had "retained" some of the medication. Charles' temperature was still quite high,--but over the next twenty-four hours it came down and he responded to the care as well as the sulfa medication.

Charles was discharged in four days as "cured". He was the first patient in the state of Pennsylvania and city of Philadelphia to receive this new drug. Sulfa saved countless lives. Then World War II started, and as always during warfare medical opportunities are expanded and great progress was made in medicine. This is when penicillin became available. And, my "little brother" lives in Florida now, plays golf, had knee replacement surgery and is none the worse for this experience. God is so good!

DADDY'S BEAVER FUR GAUNTLET GLOVES

It was December 24, 1929 and Mama (Grace Swartley) could not wait until Charles E. Frick would come up from Mt Airy (Frick's primary residence) and deliver our Christmas gifts. He would always leave them in the eighteenth century kitchen of the farm house. We lived in a new stone three bedroom home some distance up the lane. Mr Frick owned the farm where my father, Arthur Swartley was the manager. It was called "Walnut Grove Farm" in Horsham, Montgomery Country and today the farm and adjoining houses and land is the Walnut Grove Industrial Park.

Mr Frick arrived about one thirty, came into our kitchen wishing all of us a Merry Christmas and took my mother's gift of jars of pickled beets, yellow string beans, tomatoes, oxbart cherries and white peaches that Mama had canned during the summer. Also she added a box of her cookies for Mr Frick's sister Emma who lived with him. They had a live in cook and house keeper.

Mr Frick was a builder of houses in central Philadelphia and owned thirty five houses on Lehigh

Generation 8 (con't)

Avenue. Renters paid their rent through a realtor brother and sister who were born in Line Lexington. Neither ever married and their background was Mennonite but they did not have any religious connection. They are both buried in Doylestown Cemetery.

Daddy went over to get the gifts as soon as Mr Frick left and brought them back to our dining room. They were placed on the table, all gifts beautifully wrapped by the stores and Mama passed them out to my ten year old brother, Arthur Clymer Swartley Jr., and myself, Elizabeth, twelve years old and Daddy. We all started opening them. Mama never wrapped our gifts so this was a wonderful experience. Somehow Daddy opened his gift first, it was a pair of real beaver fur gauntlet gloves, fur up to elbows and down to the end of his fingers. Inside palms of hands and inside of fingers were leather.

Daddy held the gloves up, upside down and he announced "they feel heavy". As he did this ten $10 gold pieces fell out of each finger and thumbs and most were rolling towards the pipeless heater grate in the entrance hall. Daddy yelled to my brother and me to get them before they rolled down the large grate. Dropping our gifts we retrieved all ten of the gold pieces and gave them to him. Talk about being thrilled!

We all calmed down and started to again open our gifts. My brother and I always received books which we enjoyed. I received "Pilgrim's Progress" that year and my brother received "The Wishbone Man". Mama received a lovely Irish damask white table cloth and a dozen napkins. She was so happy for her gift.

My father wore his beaver gloves the rest of his farming life, always when he drove his tractor. The inside palms and fingers became well worn, he dearly loved them and was always happy to tell the Christmas story when he received them.

My father's name was Arthur Clymer Swartley, his mother was Ella Mary Clymer, daughter of Eli and Magdalena Clymer and his father was William Moyer Swartley or "Upper Billy" of Chalfont. His cousin with the same name had the adjoining farm south of his on Route 152 North of Chalfont and was known as "Lower Billy". This way the town could keep them apart.

Note: Because my grandfather was born into a Mennonite family, my Aunt Elizabeth Stover was able to donate the gloves to the Mennonite Heritage Museum and Center in Harleysville, PA. At Christmas, the gloves can be seen on the Center's sleigh display. Bonnie Swartley Martin 08 Aug 2010

Swartley, Jr. (deceased); and sister-in-law, Ester Stover

Generation 8 (con't)

Search of Holland, Pa.

Born on her grandfather's farm in Chalfont, Bucks County, her family shortly moved to Walnut Grove Farm in Horsham, Montgomery County. She graduated from Abington High School in 1935, and became a Registered Nurse in 1938 upon graduating from Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia. During her nursing career, Elizabeth held supervisory positions at Columbia Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pa. as well as later at Bryn Mawr Hospital and as a nurse with Lansdale Nursing Agency in Devon, Pa.

Elizabeth married her husband, Preston on Thanksgiving Day 1940. After her husband returned from submarine service in WWII, they moved their family several times to Cleveland, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pa. and returned to the Philadelphia Area after their children were raised. While living in Pittsburgh in 1972, Elizabeth was approached by her minister, asking her to chair a committee to create a senior citizens center at her church. This center was in existence for over 20 years, thanks to Elizabeth's efforts.

Not a birthday, birth, anniversary, wedding, graduation went by without her thoughtfulness of a card and letter, and she never forgot to ask about you and yours when she would see you. She loved entertaining friends and family. Her backyard picnics were legendary, as well as her talents as an outstanding seamstress, cook, baker, and gardener. Homemade and home grown describe her talents and joys.

Elizabeth and Preston enjoyed cross country camping trips, Grand Canyon mule trip, and were always proud to tell everyone at the time of their trip she was one of the oldest women to do the trip. Once, while camping in Tennessee, Elizabeth had an encounter with a bear over some butter. In 1994, they moved to Dock Woods Community, enjoying life at this chosen place.

Elizabeth left us with two thoughts: "Always make younger friends" and most importantly, "Yes, there is a God and a Savior, His son, Jesus. Just believe and we'll meet in Heaven."

A Memorial Service to be held in the Chapel at Dock Woods Community in Lansdale at a later date. Huff & Lakjer Funeral Home,

Start Up of a New Job in a New Untried Field of Endeavor: Television Broadcasting by E. Preston Stover

Note: Below was written by Elizabeth Swartley Stover utilizing her husband's notes and talking to Preston and living through these earlydays. (January 2006)

E. Preston Stover and Harold Pennypacker plus three interns had been hired to be the studio crew at what was known as W3XE (its experimental license that lasted until April, 1946 (when the Philco-owned television station became WPTZ-TV). The date was April 1, 1946. Earnest B. Loveman was Philco's vice president in charge. Rolland Tooke, his assistant, and Ernest Walling, producer-director, already in place.

W3XE was one of three stations in the country:

Generation 8 (con't)

1. Schenectady, NY owned by GE
2. New York City owned by RCA
3. Philadelphia owned by Philco Corporation

W3XE had two cameras, #1 and #2 built pre-war. Studio was on the 24th floor of Architects Building at 17th and Sansom Streets in Philadelphia, PA. The cameras used orthicon tubes, large five inch face which needed the light of 3,000-foot candles. Studio lighting consisted of three banks of 60 bulbs of 150 watts---very HOT! Studio was built in two stages, one half on each side facing the center.

The cameras were mounted on Hollywood camera dollies, having a seat, four wheels, a boom (seat camera sits on) all very heavy! The cameras were pushed and steered from the back by a second person---the pusher of the dolly. Camera was balanced on a swivel head and two lenses for taking and for viewing. Cameraman was seated in back of camera and viewed on ground glass screen; one lens wide angle and one lens close up viewing from the back. The picture was upside down and backward. Crew wore headsets; the director also wearing a headset would indicate close up and follow the action.

1946-Early 1947

A cooking show, Jane Hall chef and commentator, was on one half hour each Wednesday. Heat was a big problem but crew demonstrated wonderful ingenuity for solving the problems such as food melting and silverware too hot to handle, tinted mashed potatoes becoming gelatin, cake icing and ice cream. No eating allowed!

Another show was □SearsVisiquiz□ which featured John Franklin as emcee. An artist drew pictures and Franklin made phone calls to the public from telephone book but the phones became too hot to handle so crew wrapped them with friction tape. Prizes were tires, dishes and small electrical appliances.

In 1947, RCA built a smaller camera and WPTZ personnel were invited to see a demo at RCA in Camden, NJ. It was a great camera and immediately two cameras were set up in Franklin Field for the Penn football season. That was just the beginning! A platform was built and two RCA cameras were installed. At one of the first home games, a camera became incapacitated in first half of the game. RCA was notified and during half time a replacement arrived. George Munger was coach of the Penn team.

Stover as a cameraman heard and saw the need for visual publicity for the participants of the various live TV shows. The demand was great. Using his own camera, he took pictures after the shows and at night he and his wife Elizabeth would develop the glossy 8 x 10s, one dollar per picture, in their bathtub. By the summer of 1947 the couple had the down payment to buy their G.I. home in Penllyn, address 437 Hoover Ave.

January and February 1948

Stover was given total responsibility by Mr. Loveman and acting producer-director was sent out for five weeks with a crew, taking all their equipment, traveling by air and air freight to Buffalo, NY, Pittsburgh, West Palm Beach, Houston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Portland, OR and Seattle. He worked in cooperation with local, mainly Philco appliance dealers, and produced in these cities void of TV one hour TV shows using local professionals as part of the demo. A great incentive for these people to buy Philco TVs when stations became available. Remember---no cable!

1. Baseball began in Shibe Park. The As and the Phillies were on TV. Stover was producer-director and had the use of two cameras. Sundays were sometimes double headers and the Blue Laws created problems. (PA Blue Laws stated retail companies had to be closed on Sundays)
2. WPTZ was now doing numerous public service programs---dog shows, cooking shows.
3. Democrat and Republican conventions.
4. Frontier Playhouse Fridays from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Rex Trailer had live openings and closings

Generation 8 (con't)

with a horse from his ranch in Bucks County.

5. 15-minute kids' show Atom Squad every day with special effects and was also carried by NBC.
6. Popeye and Mr. Rivet, his alter ego.
7. Gimbel's Handy Man with Jack Creamer. (Gimbels was a major department store in Phila)
8. Gimbel's Thanksgiving Parade.
9. Miss Terry A one year old was brought to studio twice a week at 9:00 a.m. and placed in playpen. Played and entertained for the "Let Scott Do It" with Alan Scott and Jack Hall Show.
10. Church services were televised a couple of Sundays per month. All faiths included.

1. Uncle Pete Boyle, artist and emcee introduced cartoons at noon. (Uncle Pete's son is actor Peter Boyle who plays Raymond's Dad on "Everyone Loves Raymond.")
2. Live pickups for NBC Bill Garden, NBC producer of Army/Navy game 80,000 present.
3. Baseball: As and Phillies Stover producer-director with Byrom Salm, announcer.
4. Football at Franklin Field.
5. Ice skating at Ardmore rink starring Dick Button.
6. Basketball getting interested.
7. Mummers Parade on New Year's Day.
8. Auto racing at Langhorne with Stover Babcock.

1950

1. Wide, Wide World of Sports and various other subjects.
2. Penn Relays
3. U.S. Open Golf Tournament from Merion Country Club. One camera at 9th hole.
4. Daily soap opera entitled Miss Susan. Actress Susan Peters played part of a lawyer. She was in real life a paraplegic due to a hunting accident--she utilized a wheelchair. Series ran for one year LIVE!
5. Phillies/New York Yankees World Series at Shibe Park. A seventeen-minute electrical blackout occurred at the station. Game continued, but telecast stopped. Station had electric but no picture. Score 4-0 for New York.
6. General Eisenhower and Viscount Montgomery were a double pickup for ABC.
7. Christmas Eve service in sub-freezing weather from Bethlehem, PA's Central Moravian Church at 11:00 p.m. to midnight. A trombone choir played on church tower; the putz (a visual Christmas story) in churches and homes were televised. IMPRESSIVE!
8. Ernie Kovacs hired for weekend announcer.
9. Station talking about early 7:30 - 9:00 a.m. show utilizing Ernie as emcee. NBC stated it was a crazy idea. It was immediately a hit! Shortly Kovacs and crew stated a female singer would be an asset, and Edie Adams was hired. Program was all LIVE!
10. Dance Party produced by Chet Cooper was televised daily in the old Arena at 45th and Market Sts. And later fed to ABC.
11. At this point in time there was no news except weather bulletins at breaks. John Facenda came to see Stover regarding a fifteen-minute newscast. Stover was excited but station lacked interest so Facenda went over to WCAU-TV, and clicked.

At this time WPTZ-TV had moved to Westinghouse Building at 1619 Walnut Street. Studios were built; an auditorium that held 200 people was installed since WPT originate an audience for late night Jack Pyle.

NBC informed WPTZ they wished to buy Channel 3 and make it a part of NBC, owned and operated stations. They would evenly swap NBC station in Cleveland, Ohio. RCA exerted extreme pressure on Philadelphia station to transfer. Exchange was made effective January 1, 1955. KYW call letters were taken and thirteen families moved to Cleveland, the Stover family being one of them.

In the long run this was a good move. From Cleveland, within five years these thirteen became the pillars of the young, growing TV broadcasting industry across the country.

Generation 8 (con't)

Preston Stover, as producer-director, has televised close to several hundred baseball games and about forty football games, five of them being Army/Navy games.

The following was a news release from WPTZ in 1952. It is quoted verbatim:

WPTZ first in television in Philadelphia. Philco television Broadcasting Corp. 1800 Architects Bldg, Philadelphia 3, Pa (NBC television affiliate).

For Immediate Release

STOVER NAMED HEAD OF WPTZ PROGRAM OPERATIONS

Preston Stover, heretofore Director of Special Events at WPTZ, had been appointed Manager of Program Operations for this pioneer Philadelphia television station. The announcement was made today by Ernest B. Loveman, Vice President of Philco Television Broadcasting Corporation, which owns and operates WPTZ.

In his new capacity, Stover will be responsible for the execution of all phases of WPTZ's programming, including supervision of the station's motion picture unit as well as studio, remote and film activities.

Stover joined WPTZ immediately following the war as a cameraman and advanced through the ranks to studio floor manager, remote director, assistant director of special events and director of this programming division. In this capacity, during the past few months he has produced and directed such telecasts as the Army-Navy football classic, Penn football schedule, and the Christmas Eve ceremonies from Bethlehem for WPTZ and the NBC network. Beginning with the 1947 season, Stover has directed or supervised all baseball games played at Shibe Park by both the American and National leagues, totaling over 500 games. As supervisor of a traveling crew operated for Philco Corporation, Stover staged, produced and directed the first television programs in such cities as Buffalo, Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Seattle, New Orleans and Houston.

Evan Preston Stover Jr., passed away on Monday, Nov. 18, 2013. He was 95.

Formerly of Devon, Pa., and a resident of Dock Woods Community in Lansdale, he was the cherished husband of 73 years of Elizabeth Swartley Stover.

He is also survived by his sister, Esther Stover Search of Holland, Pa.; and brother-in-law, Charles Swartley (MJ) of Bradenton, Fla.

A 1936 graduate of Richboro High School, he married Elizabeth on Thanksgiving Day, 1940. He served in the U.S. Navy in the submarine service in the Pacific.

A pioneer in television, Preston was hired by the Philco Corporation, the owner of WPTZ-TV, the first television station operating in Philadelphia. At the time, there were three TV stations in the country; Schenectady, New York City, and Philadelphia. His starting position was cameraman and he was soon promoted to producer-director. He was associated with such programming as Horn & Hardart Children's Hour; Let Scott Do It; and Frontier Playhouse, which were cowboy films for children; the 1948 Republican and Democratic Conventions from Philadelphia; and ice skating championships from Ardmore Skating Rink, to name a few. Park. Over the next five years Preston produced and directed over 500 A's baseball home games; Army-Navy football games as well as several University of Pennsylvania football games.

Preston continued his television career working in Cleveland, Ohio at KYW-TV, and later at WTAE-TV in Pittsburgh, Pa. He retired from television in 1974.

Preston and his Elizabeth returned to the Philadelphia area, residing in Devon, Pa. where he spent 17 years working at TrueValue Hardware Store in Wayne.

Preston and Elizabeth flourished during their retirement years, enjoying camping trips throughout the United States, and often hosting family and friends in their Devon home.

Preston and Elizabeth were active members at St. John's Presbyterian Church in Devon, where he served as head of elders while living and sharing his strong faith in God.

Preston was an outstanding gardener. His vegetable and flower gardens were one of his many joys. He also had a lifelong passion with photography. Always at the ready with both still camera and one of the first movie cameras made, his favorite subject being his family. We three kids would moan loudly when Dad would say, 'Just one more picture, kids. Let's do it again.' Known as Pres to his family and many friends, he was Dad to us kids, and Grampy to his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He loved calling our mom 'Kid'; he is going to be greatly missed by his family.

A memorial service will be held in the Chapel at Dock Woods Community in Lansdale at a later date.

For those desiring, memorial contributions may be made to the Living Branches Foundation - Dock Woods/Dock Meadows Sharing Fund or to the Dock Woods Community Chapel Fund, 275 Dock Dr., Lansdale, PA 19446. Huff & Lakjer Funeral Home, Lansdale

W. Merrill Fellman, 77, ex-tax collector, auditor

W. Merrill Fellman of New Britain Township, a former township tax collector and auditor who was active in township politics, died Thursday at his home. He was 77.

He was the husband of Esther Shutt Fellman.

Born in New Britain Township, he was the son of the late Walter C. and Catherine Slifer Fellman.
Mr. Fellman was reared in the former Lockhart Farm complex on Curley Mill Road. He moved to another township residence with his parents in the early 1940s. After his marriage in 1946, he moved to Doylestown, where he lived until 1962. At that time he and his wife bought his father's residence in New Britain, and lived there until the time of his death.

As soon as he was old enough to vote, he became involved in politics. In Doylestown, he was a Republican ward leader and committeeman. After returning to New Britain, he held various party positions, the most recent that of executive committeeman.

In the 1970s, Mr. Fellman was township tax collector and auditor. He served on the New Britain Township History Committee, where he was honored in 1992 for not missing a vote.

Mr. Fellman was employed 31 years by the Bucks County Egg Producers, later Agway of Doylestown. He retired after 10 years as head custodian of the former Peace Valley Elementary School in New Britain Township.

He was a sixth-degree Golden Sheaf member of the Chalfont Grange, where he held many positions.

Mr. Fellman was a lifelong parishioner at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Hilltown, where he was president of the Joint Cemetery Association. He had been president of the Men's Brotherhood, a Sunday School teacher, and a chairman and member of several church committees.

Surviving besides his wife are a daughter, Suzanne Fellman Jacob of Chalfont; a son, Walter M.
Fellman Jr. of Chalfont; and a sister, Dorothy M. Hendricks of Hilltown.

A memorial service will be 3 p.m. Feb. 12 at his church.

Contributions may be made to the church memorial fund, 1530 Augsburg Drive, Line Lexington

Notes for Suzanne (Shutt) Fellman:

Weisel Reunion Memories BySuzanne Fellman Jacob, January 17, 2004

A great way to acquaint a child with distant relatives (literally and figuratively) and teach that child manners and how to play with others is to take him or her to a family reunion. As a child, I was taken to reunions. I learned how to lose (though not always gracefully) during the peanut toss and bag races; how to greet my elders; to enjoy people of different religious backgrounds and beliefs; and to understand how family history shapes my everyday life.

I was incredibly lucky. My parents were always interested in family history and passed stories and photos on to me. Of course, now I wish I had paid more attention more often but the memories are sweet, nonetheless. The Fellman dinner table was a time of discussion. As the oldest child (my brother is 5 years my junior, so I was an only child for a goodly length of time), I had the most to say. Discussion was considered the hallmark of a successful meal (along with good food) and religion and politics were, more often than not, the main topic(s) of conversation, guests notwithstanding. I learned, early on, to hold my own; to stand firm in my beliefs (the other person's viewpoints were respected, listened to, and discussed but not - necessarily - my views.)

The Weisel reunions, held at Forest's Grove in Hatfield, PA, taught me all that and more. I really enjoyed the older people (Grace Swartley, the Kratz and Zetty families, my Pop-Pop Shutt among the ones that come to mind). Most of them took time to talk with me (not to me or at me), understand what I enjoyed in life, and got to know me. But reunions, by their nature, don't leave a great deal of time for deep and meaningful discussions with any one person. However, the 1950's were a slower time (at least in memory) and people took time to sit and talk with each other.

There were cliques in my memory. Some family units stuck together; some people ignored or brushed off others; some individuals seem to get along with anyone and everyone. My poor brother, when he came along, was at the tail end of the family - the only boy his age was Billy Swartley (they went to school together and graduated from the same class at Central Bucks). I had a few girls my age; Nan (?) Hogan, Nancy Benbow, and one of the Kratz girls, I think. The others were just old enough that they hung together. Perhaps they were first cousins; my immediate first cousins didn't attend, for whatever reason.

When we arrived, we'd promptly take the food into the pavilion. The din of women greeting other women, whom they hadn't seen for a year in some cases, still resonates in my memory. But the greetings were joyful. Oh, how I wish I could go back and see some of those ladies and ask family history questions...

The best part was the feeding frenzy. All the iced tea was dumped into one container and mixed together. Back then I was "hyperactive." Well, put that together with a lot of sugar from the desserts and the iced tea plus the caffeine level of the iced tea and I was swinging from a vine long before we got home.

Now, the iced tea - note that it was all dumped together - should have been a nice mix. I suspect, however, that most women made it like my mom: 10 teabags (and they didn't know about decaf in those days, did they?!) in a 2 quart pan, full of water. Bring to a boil and then let the teabags steep in that water for an indeterminate length of time (or until it cleaned the hair off a man's chest). Dump in a great deal of sugar and some lemons and stir, stir, stir. Then, pour the tea into the jug/container you were taking to the picnic. Add water to "top off" the jug, which meant most of the tea was 110 proof. Well, good golly Miss Molly, if most women did that the chunk of ice that was dumped in the tub to cool the tea really didn't dilute it much, did it? No wonder I went home hanging from the roof of the car. Between the sugar and the caffeine, I was so hyped up it took me hours to unwind. By the way, it took me years (well into my thirties) to figure out that caffeine plus sugar made me hyperactive.

We usually ate outside, under the trees, at long tables. As a child, I was wedged between Daddy and someone else. Early on, it was my Pop-pop Shutt, married to Alma Weisel (who had died in 1947, the year before I was born). In later years, it might be beside Clayton Zetty or even Grace Swartley - someone who knew the family and me. And, frankly, I enjoyed those individuals. They told wonderful stories about people I knew, or had heard about. By the time I really became interested in hearing more of those stories, we didn't go or the reunion moved. I'm not sure which.

Lunch was huge with everyone bringing his or her favorites. Mom always made ground ham. The day before she'd bake a ham and then cut it down into chunks. Saturday morning, after she put her jellyroll and pies in to bake, she'd begin the ham. Up would come the meat grinder. It would be attached to the edge of the kitchen table, with a drip pan on the floor (because the celery and onions created some juices). Celery and ham and chunks of onion would be tossed into the grinder and out would come the most delicious mix. This was one of the jobs I was allowed to do (today, I still use that meat grinder to make ground ham!). After it was all ground, Mom would mix Miracle Whip into it. Perhaps, before I became aware of things, she used real mayonnaise but that was invoking the food poisoning god, and she knew it. Miracle Whip was a godsend! After it was well mixed, sandwiches would be made. They would be sliced on the diagonal and placed in a sandwich bag or wrapped in waxed paper. Golly, they were THE best sandwiches in the whole world! Another favorite was Grace Swartley's lemon butter. Everyone reached for it and it was liberally smeared on buns and/or sandwiches. Ummm, ummm good!

I believe games were played after the meal, though that memory is really hazy for me. I don't know why. Was I too young? Did I hate to lose (to this day, I play to win)? Did I not feel comfortable with cousins I saw but once a year? It may have been any one of these things and all of them. I just don't have good or many memories of the games.

I do, however, remember the program. This was usually held inside the pavilion. I remember a parade of very talented Weisels performing for the audience. It was quite enjoyable. I think the Benbow family usually performed as a group. Anyway, it always amazed me that any one group of people could be so talented. I always tried to convince Mom to do something but she wouldn't. She was one of the most self-effacing individuals I've known.

Mom was an excellent singer and a great pianist. I understand the music ability came from her mother, Alma, who played at Pleasantville Reformed (now UCC) Church in Eureka, Bucks County, PA. But Mom would NOT get up in front of people.

In any case, we were entertained by trumpet and trombone players, pianists, singers, and poetry recitals. There was always, also, a business meeting, with tall, bald Weisels as most of the officers.

Sometimes we stayed for the supper meal. Whatever was leftover from lunch was served for supper. This is another hazy part of my memory.

Many of you reading this may smile fondly. Hopefully, others will post their memories of those 1950-60s reunions.

Today, when the Weisels get together the foods tend to be more Atkins or South Beach Diet emphasis with the occasional taco salad and spring mix salad with a low fat or vinaigrette dressings. But the dessert table still groans under the weight of those Weisel sweets and many of us take a little of each item to try it - for memory's sake and for our insulin rush.

James Frederick Kohler Obituary

Published 2/9/99

James Frederick Kohler of Prospectville died Saturday, February 6, 1999 of cancer. He was 68.

Kohler, a lifelong resident of Horsham Township, was chairman of the Board of Supervisors from 1966 to 1971. He was instrumental in initiating the Township's "Open Spaces" policy, Horsham Day, and building the original Township building.

For many years he was owner and proprietor of Shive Hardware and Kohler's Gifts in Doylestown. During those years, Kohler was active in the Doylestown Rotary. He was also a 32nd degree Mason and a Shriner.

Fred's first love was his local church congregation. He served on every committee at Pleasantville United Church of Christ, including President of the Congregation and Chairman of the Board of Elders. His work as chair of the building projects in 1956 and 1987 were accomplishments that particularly pleased him.

From 1980 to 1995 he served on the professional staff of the Pennsylvania Southeast Conference of the United Church of Christ in Collegeville, first as Business Manager, then Minister of Stewardship, and finally as Area Conference Minister. He was the only lay person to ever achieve this position. During this time he oversaw the building of the Conference Center, the complex which houses the regional offices.

Generation 9 (con't)

Fred is survived by his wife, Mary; three children, Deborah of Flint, Mich., J. Fritz of Prospectville and Emlee of Hancock, N.H.; and his grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at Pleasantville U.C.C., 3424 Limekiln Pike, Chalfont, Pa. 18914 at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, February 11, 1999. The family will greet people at a reception following worship.

Notes for Jennifer (Christian) Stover:

Family Tribute to Jennifer

Read at her funeral

Preston and Sharon would like to share a little of Jennifer with you. They are unable to do this themselves and I have been asked to do this.

Jennifer came to us after much prayer on a muggy day May 23, 1970, on the island of Okinawa. Her life from day one was a marathon to get as much possible into each day. She was a DOER, not a spectator of life. She convinced her grandfather before the age of two that she was always allowed to climb up and slide down the 10-foot slide in the park, when in fact, she'd never been on it before. She had to be carried into the house each summer evening, arms and legs flailing, wanting to be outside longer. She had to wear an I.D. bracelet night and day because of her fondness for exploring new places and getting away so quickly. Even as a toddler, she tried everything, without fear and with enthusiasm. We embraced her with encouragement to try it all.

She grew into the same kind of older child. Our fondest memories of her are varied and cherished. She could ride her bike, skate and skateboard before anyone else. Our minds picture her coming down our street's hill on her skateboard at rapid speed, grinning, hair flying behind her. We see her doing cartwheels, flips, back walk-overs and working on the parallel bars during her 3 years in gymnastics. We see her out-running everyone in the neighborhood.

Her kindergarten teacher remarked at a conference how she got along well with the girls, but held her own very well with the boys! She was as eager to go fishing and help Daddy go to the dump as she was to help Mommy bake cinnamon buns and play with her beloved doll house. She loved playing in the creek behind our house as well as dressing up in a beautiful dress. She always wished she'd lived when girls wore long, lovely dresses.

She was a loving child. We will forever see her running to the car to say a big "Hi, Dad," almost nightly after work. "I'm home, Mom," will be missed after school. Until the end we were constantly assured of her love verbally. She was our loving daughter. She loved her brother Preston - they teased each other endlessly, but they were each other's playmates. Lindsay was her baby sister and Jennifer adored her, mothered and cared for her and received so much joy from watching her grow and from being a model for her.

Jennifer was a fighter throughout these last two and a half years. She accepted it all with a wisdom and attitude that was beyond her years and our understanding. She had accepted Christ as her Savior at age seven and over and over she showed her love for the Lord. She prayed each evening at bedtime and always prayed for friends who were not Christians and ended with the petition, "and help the hospital people." She showed kindness and gave comfort to all of us each day. In the last thirty days since returning from Seattle, we have experienced nothing but golden days, gifts from God.

We prayed three things for Jennifer. All prayers were lovingly answered. We were able to keep Jennifer home with us until the last twelve hours. The Lord gave us an unforgettable last sleepless, beautiful night with our daughter. Dawn on July 3rd was lovely, and we knew it ended our time with Jennifer at home. Jennifer was unaware of those last hours at the hospital, another prayer answered. And lastly, we were with her, holding hands till the end. Jennifer met death as she did life, fighting all the way.

We are absolutely assured of where she is. The Lord prepared a special place for her because she was special. We shall miss her and we love her.

We want to thank you all for the prayers for Jennifer and for us. Our church has been so caring and supportive in all ways. To our dear, dear neighbors, we say thank you for two and a half years of help and time to listen. We thank Pres' co-workers for their assistance and understanding during difficult times. We wish everyone could experience the love and help we have received from our families and friends. We want to thank all of Jennifer's friends for just being there always. Our sincerest thanks to Dr. Thomas and the staff at Bethesda for all they gave to Jennifer. To Jim Duncan, our Pastor, thank you for your ministry to us.

And thank you, Lord, for the strength to bring us all through these last two and a half years.

Sue Swartley Presby
Published 10/24/01

Grace Suzanne Swartley Presby, a resident of Unadilla, N.Y., formerly of Chalfont, Pa. died Oct. 8, 2001 after a long illness.

She was the daughter of the late Arthur C. Swartley Jr. and Ida Swartley, of Chalfont. Her husband was the Rev. Allen Presby, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of East Guilford, N.Y. and the First Presbyterian Church of Unadilla, N.Y.

Sue graduated from Central Bucks High School in 1964 and from Millersville State College in 1968. In 1987 she earned her master's degree in education from Nazareth College of Rochester, N.Y. Before her illness, Sue taught in the secondary school system of the Diocese of Rochester, first at Our Lady of Lourdes and later at Siena Catholic Academy. She also was active in local charitable organizations, and was named a deacon of the Victor First Presbyterian Church.

Sue is survived by two children, Aimee DeYoung of Decatur, Ill. and David Presby of Rochester, N.Y.; and grandson Gabriel DeYoung. She is also survived by her mother, Ida Swartley of Chalfont; sister Bonnie Martin of Pittsford, N.Y.; and brothers, Dr. Robert Swartley of Malvern, Pa. and Bill Swartley of Apex, N.C.

Memorial contributions in Sue's name may be made to Catskill Area Hospice & Palliative Care Inc., 542 Main St., Oneonta, NY 13820.

My Sister Sue by Bonnie Swartley Martin

Sue was my my only sister, and next to my husband, my best friend. There was much to admire and love about her. She was a devout Christian, and worked actively in her church. She was a deacon in the Victor, NY, Presbyterian Church, unusual for a minister's wife, but she was no ordinary person. In addition to her full-time teaching job, she worked for two other organizations: her local Food Link and Habitat For Humanity. Although Sue never owned her own home, she always wanted to. How like her to help others become home owners.

Sue married a man who became a minister. I know she loved the man dearly, and she loved the Church as much or more than any minister could. It was a match made in heaven. She supported Allen in his ministerial duties to the best of her abilities- and those abilities were considerable. She was a musician, and both sang and played the piano. She had taken piano and voice lessons as a child and teenager, and resumed those studies as an adult in order to better serve the church. She sang in the church choir, and played piano for the Sunday School. She cooked and baked the most superbly delicious dishes. I still remember the best coconut cream pie I have ever had in my life- Sue baked it. She used those talents for her own family, but also for the church. My sister also gardened- both flowers and vegetables. Her flowers were so beautiful, and she froze and canned the bounty from their backyard vegetable garden.

Sue made into a lovely home every house her family ever lived in. She painted, she wall-papered, she stenciled; she sewed, she quilted. She worked so hard to improve a home she didn't own, then moved on to beautify the next.

Sue was loving, caring, thoughtful, kind, considerate, and selfless. She gave so much more than she took. She enriched every life she touched. Sue will always be in our thoughts and hearts. I thank God for my sister.

Sue Swartley Presby passed away on October 8, 2001.

Notes for Edward Charles (Shutt) Detweiler:

CHAPMAN --

Edward C. Detweiler, 65, of Chapman died Friday, Jan. 25, 2013, at his home near Chapman. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Chapman Public School Gymnasium. The Rev. Scott Friesen will officiate. Burial will be at the Chapman Cemetery. Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Apfel Funeral Home in Grand Island.

Ed was born Dec. 14, 1947, at Allentown, Pa., to Charles Dell and Dorothy Kemmerling. He grew up in Allentown and was adopted in the 6th grade and raised by Marietta and Stan Detweiler. He graduated from Northwest High School in Allentown.

He served in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard. He graduated from college in LeMars, Iowa, before moving to the Grand Island area where he began working for the Chapman Public Schools. He taught, coached basketball, and was also principal at Chapman for nearly 30 years. He was also assistant principal at Northwest High School in Grand Island for 10 years before retiring in 2009.

He married Dixie Rice in November 1994 at Grand Island. The couple lived outside of Chapman, where Ed loved caring for his property. He also enjoyed golfing with friends and wood working. He attended Berean Bible Church in Grand Island, and was a member of the Platt-Deutsche.

"Mr. D," as he was known to his students, cared deeply for each student trusted to his care. On many occasions, students contacted Ed as adults to express their gratitude to him for his tough love. Ed's genuine love for his students touched many lives and influenced them to make correct choices. Ed believed in people, always looking for the good in them. Ed was able to relate and communicate to people because he valued folks for who they were, not their status in life. This attribute provided Ed with many lifelong friends. Ed will be greatly missed by family and friends.

Survivors include his wife, Dixie Detweiler, of Chapman; two daughters, Sarah and Stefan Hall of Green Bay, Wis. and Emily and Derek Herlofsky of Minneapolis; a granddaughter, Beau Brinkley Herlofsky; his birth mother, Dorothy; one sister, Judy Fenstermacher of Allentown, Pa.; a brother, Tommy Leitgeb, of Allentown, Pa.; adopted sister, Kathy Umphress, of Grand Island; as well as several half sisters and brothers.

He was preceded in death by his adoptive parents.

Memorials are suggested to Chapman Public Schools or Northwest High School.

Notes for Dixie Rice:

Posted online November 14, 2014 to The Grand Island Independent
CHAPMAN - Dixie J. Rice Detweiler, 67, of Chapman died unexpectedly on Tuesday, Nov. 11, 2014, with her family by her side at CHI Health St. Francis in Grand Island.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Berean Bible Church in Grand Island, with the Rev. Scott Friesen officiating. Burial will be in the Chapman Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday at Apfel Funeral Home.

Mrs. Detweiler was born on March 27, 1947, in Grand Island to Mildred Irene (Powell) Rice and Ralph Vernon Rice Jr.

She married Ed Detweiler in November 1994. He preceded her in death.

Survivors of the immediate family include a son, T.J. Carroll of Iowa; three brothers and sisters-in-law, Chuck and May Lynne Rice of Arkansas, Russ and Lora Rice of Chapman and Brad and Mary Rice of Elkhorn; and a sister, Tena Davis of Chapman.

She was the first of five children and was raised on the family farm near Chapman. She attended District 39 Elementary, Chapman Elementary and Central City High School.

Upon graduation from high school, Dixie attended business college in Memphis, Tenn. After a year in business college, she entered flight attendant school in Chicago and became a flight attendant for United Airlines, making it her career for the next 40 years. Dixie had a yearning to return to Nebraska, and in 1992, she relocated to Chapman to be with her family. It was there that she met the love of her life, Ed Detweiler. They purchased a farm and lived west of Chapman.

To say that Dixie will be dearly missed is an understatement. She left an indelible mark on each and every one of her family. You could always count on Dixie to remember a birthday or anniversary, and she had an amazing ability to find the right card or gift that made you realize she had just you in mind. Dixie loved the Christmas holiday, and she took such delight in watching everyone open their goodies and the expression on their faces. Dixie was one that truly found the joy in giving rather than receiving.

She also enjoyed watching Nebraska football, especially with her brother and the rest of the family gathered close by. With binoculars in hand, Dixie would spend hours watching the squirrels and the birds outside of her bay window. We will all dearly miss her animated and slightly exaggerated stories of "Mr. Squirrel" and the laughter that would follow her tales.

In 2010, Dixie began attending Berean Bible Church, which became a second family to her. In a short amount of time, she found much joy in the relationships she had built while attending there. Every Wednesday, Dixie would meet with another "second" family - her Weight Watchers friends. Within the past year, she was delighted to be able to reunite with an old family friend. Several times a week, Dixie would spend time with her, playing bingo and just reliving the past, which meant a lot to her, for she would talk of their time often.

But perhaps the biggest joy of Dixie's life was her nieces and nephews. Dixie took such deep and genuine interest in each of them. Never was she too busy or too distracted to listen to their life's latest happenings. Each and every one in turn loved Aunt Dixie. She was a precious gift given to us for too short a time. We will all cherish the memories that she left us.

Dixie was preceded in death by her dearly loved father and mother and her precious husband, Ed Detweiler.

Memorials are suggested to the Berean Bible Church.

Her halftime stats:

Playing Time - 30 minutes

Successfully audibled a big play - 'down and out' route for a touchdown

No penalties incurred - there was heated debate about this, but you can't call a 'celebration' penalty in the pros

No 'red flag' challenges -- she did it right the first time.

The big game is over, but the Hydrologist can still be seen post-game tailgating in Section FM.

Post Game Stats:

Brown hair

Good set of lungs

Quick-study on the "nursing thing"

Slept well last night after the 'big' game!

Melissa is doing well and hospital discharge is set for Wednesday; Aaron has taken the week off!

Hudson, Jacob Tyler (McKinstry)

Death: 09 Oct 2014 in Children's National Medical Center, Washington, DC

- 1 Hambrick, Greg (Patch Staff), Fredericksburg Patch (Fredericksburg, VA, Fredericksburg Patch, 10 Oct 2014), Jacob Tyler Hudson, 23. Jacob Tyler Hudson, 23, of Spotsylvania County, passed away Thursday, Oct. 9, 2014 at the Children's National Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

Jacob left his earthly family to join the Lord after a lifetime of beating the odds of two birth defects to the amazement and pleasure of medical professionals, family members and all who knew him. Through it all, he seldom complained and almost always had an infectious smile that made you realize every day is a gift.

Jacob was a 2009 graduate of Riverbend High school and was a proud member of the REACH program at Chancellor High school, which he completed in 2013. He enjoyed the simple things in life; being with people, music, swimming, playing with the dog and attending church. Survivors include his parents, Gregory and Sally Hudson; his sister, Jaclyn Hudson; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and other family members.

A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 18 at the Wilderness Community Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Wilderness Community Church, 10501 Plank Rd., Spotsylvania, VA 22553 or the Reach Program c/o Jon Longenecker, 6300 Harrison Rd., Fredericksburg, VA 22407..
