Portrait and Biographical Album of Green Lake, Marquette and Waushara Counties, Wisconsin
 Acme Publishing Company, Chicago, 1890

HENRY VINZ is a prominent merchant of Kingston, and is numbered among the early settlers of Green Lake County. The history of life on the frontier is both thrilling and interesting, but it was connected with many hardships, and the noble band of men and women who patiently bore those trials deserve the highest words of praise for their self-sacrifice and efforts. To them the county owes her present prosperity, and it would be injustice on our part to omit the sketch of one who has been so prominently identified with the progress and advancement of the community as he whose name heads this sketch. Mr. Vinz was born in the Kingdom of Prussia, on the 21st of March, 1832, and is a son of John W. Vinz, who died when our subject was but four years old. The days of his boyhood and youth were spent in his native land, in much the usual manner in which boys occupy their time. Liberal educational advantages were afforded him and he profited by his opportunities. It was in the eighteenth year of his age that he crossed the Atlantic to America to seek his fortune. He had heard much of the splendid advantages offered to young men, and he resolved to see for himself if it were possible to more readily gain a competency in the new world than in the old. He has never yet had occasion to regret the step taken. Though he began life with nothing, he is now one of the wealthy citizens of the community, and in connection with his business interests owns between 500 and 600 acres of land as the result of judicious management, untiring labor, and the able assistance of his wife, who has proved herself a true helpmate to him.

On the 20th of August, 1854, Mr. Vinz led to the marriage altar Miss Margaret Weisel, who came to this county in 1850. Nine children came to gladden the home by their presence, but only two remain under the parental roof. Mary C., the eldest, died at the age of nineteen years; Margaret G. is the wife of Henry Schmidt, of Salem, McCook Co. S. D.; John H. is living in Salem, S. D., and is the husband of Amelia Vinz; Eliza is the wife of John Luecke, of McCook County S. D.; Edward William married Lizzie Fretzke, and makes his home in Markesan; Frederick G. is living on the farm; Adam E. has been admitted to partnership with his father; Eva T. resides with her brother on the old homestead; and John Frank is still with his parents. Mr. Vinz is a member of the Lutheran Church, and Mrs. Vinz is a member of the Congregational Church, and both are highly respected citizens of the community in which they make their home.

Since 1866 Mr. Vinz has been engaged in the mercantile business in Kingston, carrying a full stock of general merchandise. He has a good trade, and is one of the enterprising and successful business men of the town, who finds time to devote to the interests of the community as well as to his own affairs. He possesses excellent judgment, and his long years of experience have made him familiar with the wants and desires of his customers.

Mrs. Vinz is a native of Grossherzogthum, Hesse-Darmstadt, at Mushenheim, where she was born May 13, 1837, and came to America in 1850, with her parents, Conrad and Anna M. Weisel, who settled in the town of Manchester, Green Lake County, the same year of their arrival. Mr. Weisel died in November, 1866, and his wife is still living at the age of eighty years. They had a family of one son and three daughters, all of whom are living.

According to his biography Henry immigrated when he was 18.

 Married - On Christmas Day, Dec, 25, 1890, by Rev. R. O. Brandt, Mr. Geo. Weisel and Miss Mary Konold, of Havana township.

The wedding was a quiet one and the happy pair left Monday for Wisconsin and Illinois where they will spend the winter visiting relatives and friends. The groom is one of Deuel county's prosperous and energetic farmers and the bride is the daughter of Wm. Konold, Sr., who is an old resident of Havana. Both of those young people are held in high esteem by all who know them and the best wishes of all will follow them in their union. The ADVOCATE swells the throng with congratulations.

WEISEL - OTTO.

The marriage of Miss Maggie Weisel of Cambria and Mr. Henry Otto of Randolph was solemnized Sept. 23 at the home of the bride in Cambria. Rev. Breeze of Fox Lake performed the ceremony in the presence of about forty guests. The full ring service was used, Master Willie Weisel of Fox Lake being ring bearer. At exactly the stated time the bridal party marched to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Lydia Umbreit of Cambria, to there places under an arch prepared for the occasion, from which swung a large bell covered with white asters, the flower which predominated in the wedding decorations. The bride was given away by her brother, George, of Fox Lake. She was handsomely gowned in French lawn and the groom was attired in the conventional black. After an elaborate wedding supper the young couple left on the evening train amid showers of rice for a month's visit with friends in Minnesota and Iowa. They will be at home after Nov. 1, in the new residence just completed by the groom in the northern part of the village.

The bride, who is the only daughter of Mrs. Conrad Weisel, is one of the popular young ladies of Cambria. The groom is well known at Randolph, having lived there for several years, and is a very promising young man.

Only by a miracle did he escape instant death. As it is, it will be several weeks before he recovers from his injuries to such an extent as to be able to be around.
