His education was received in the Fatherland previous to his emigration to America with his parents in 1851. After living two years with his parents in the new home in Greenlake county, Wisconsin, he commenced his struggle for self maintenance, his first employment being in the Wisconsin lumber camps, later going to St. Louis, Missouri, and working as a carpenter for a couple of years. Then returning to Wisconsin, he engaged in farming until 1875, when he removed to Austin and embarked in the brewery business, the destruction of his plant by fire cutting short a very prosperous business four years later. After this disaster he at once became connected with the Schlitz Brewing Company as agent and manager for the Austin branch of the company, in which capacity he remained until his retirement from active life ten years later. He is a stockholder in the George A. Hormel packing company, of Austin, treasurer of the Austin Building and Loan Association, and at one time was a director of the Citizen's National bank of Austin, and treasurer of the Austin Creamery Association. Mr. Weisel also owns a highly improved farm in Lansing township, this county, 320 acres, to which he still devotes much of his attention. His beautiful home at 213 Water street was built by himself. In politics he is a staunch Democrat and served his city well during his nine years as alderman, being elected for eight years from the third ward and for one at large. He is affiliated with the Masonic order, and is Past Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in which lodge he served several years as treasurer. December 24, 1861, he was married to Elizabeth Forcey, by whom he has six daughters: Eliza, now Mrs. August King, of Superior, Wisconsin; Julia, Ida, Mary, Ella, and Veta, married to Lewis Dewitt of Chicago. The family attend the Episcopal church. George and Katherena (Olie) Weisel, parents of our subject, came over from Germany in 1851, first locating in Greenlake county, Wisconsin, and later in Portage, Wisconsin, where they remained until 1861. They then returned to Greenlake county, the father following farming until 1878, when he retired and removed to Cambria, Columbia county, Wisconsin, later coming to Austin, where he died in 1900. His wife died in 1898.

Jacob Weisel
 1839-1917

For over forty years, Jacob Weisel, well known, had been a citizen of our city. He passed away Tuesday night at Chicago where he had gone a week previous for an operation.

Mr. Weisel had not been well for a few years past. He suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago and he had other complications. He was treated at Rochester but came home a few weeks ago, all having been done for him that could be but he grew weaker.

He went to Chicago and there submitted to an operation. He rallied and it was thought he would be well again. He was able to sit up Sunday, but Monday the family was sent for -- Mrs. Weisel and daughter. Miss Julia, going that evening and were with him to the last. The body was brought here Thursday morning and funeral services were held from the house Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. Rev. G. H. TenBroeck of the Episcopal church conducted the service. Many from away came to the funeral including friends and relatives. They were Mr. and Mrs. August King of Superior, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. DeWitt of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. William Weisel of St. Paul; Mrs. Fred Campbell of Wells; Frank Hambrecht of LeRoy; and Mrs. Keisel of St. Paul.

Jacob Weisel was a German, born June 24, 1839, in Hesse-Darmstadt. He was educated in his native country and came to America in 1851. His parents lived at Greenlake, Wisconsin, and he worked in the lumber camps when a young man. He later went to St. Louis and worked as a carpenter, returning to Wisconsin to do farming. In 1875 he came to Austin and engaged in the brewing business. His plant burned four years later. After this disaster he acted as agent and manager for the Schlitz Company, until his retirement from active life ten years later.

Many positions of public trust were bestowed upon him. He was treasurer of the Austin Building Loan Association; at one time director of the Citizens National Bank; treasurer of the Austin Creamery association; and for nine years served as alderman on our city council. He was elected for eight years from the third ward and for one year as alderman at large. In politics he was a staunch democrat. He was affiliated with the Masonic order and was Past Grand Master of the independent Order of Odd Fellows, in which lodge he served several years as treasurer.

On December 24, 1861, he married Elizabeth Forcey. Beside his wife he is survived by six daughters, Eliza, wife of August King of Superior, Wis.; Julia, Ida, Mary, Ella, all of Austin, and Veta, wife of Louis Dewitt of Chicago. He also leaves two brother, William Weisel of Lowrey and Con Weisel of Austin, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Miller of Minneapolis.

He had a fine farm in Lansing township and during the later years of his life he took great pride in driving to his farm and looking after its up-keep. The family have lived on Water street for most of the years they have been here. The old home just east of the present home was occupied for many years before the beautiful new home was built.

Mr. Weisel was interested in the welfare of his home and community and he was always ready to assist in any work along progressive lines.

Weisel's Brewery Burned.

At twenty-five minutes after nine, Monday evening, when our city was becoming gradually and silently wrapped in the arms of slumber, it was suddenly startled by the tolling of the Congregational church bell, ringing out the alarm of "fire". After the first shock had passed, and due to inquiries made, it was ascertained "the brewery was burning," and so it proved to be. all along the route to the "famous resort," every available space was occupied by interested throngs watching the progress of the terrible flames, as the roads were too muddy to attempt a pilgrimage to the immediated vicinity. Our reporter, however, undertook and completed the distance, but found that no available power could save the buildings, although our Hook and Ladder Co. fought long and bravely with the fiery elements. Both the brewery and dwelling were totally destroyed.

The brewery was situated in the 3d ward, and owned by Jake Weisel. It was a commodious structure, well stocked with apparatus for the manufacture of beer. In the north wing of the building was the dry room. It was in this apartment that the fire originated. Mr. Weisel and family had retired for the night, and the fire was discovered by one of his men just coming home from town. It had got under too great headway, however, to be extinguished with the means at hand, and every effort was put forth toward saving the stock. Mr. Weisel's residence, a commodious building, joined the brewery on the south, so it fared the same fate as the brewery, both being entirely consumed. The household furniture as well as the greater part of the stock of beer on hand, was saved.

Mr. Weisel's loss in buildings and fixtures is estimated at $8,000. Insured for $4,500.

His parents lived at Greenlake, Wisconsin, and he worked in the lumber camps when a young man. He later went to St. Louis and worked as a carpenter, returning to Wisconsin to do farming. In 1875 he came to Austin and engaged in the brewing business. His plant burned four years later. After this disaster he acted as agent and manager for the Schlitz Company, until his retirement from active life ten years later.

Many positions of public trust were bestowed upon him. He was treasurer of the Austin Building Loan Association; at one time director of the Citizens National Bank; treasurer of the Austin Creamery association; and for nine years served as alderman on our city council. He was elected for eight years from the third ward and for one year as alderman at large. In politics he was a staunch democrat. He was affiliated with the Masonic order and was Past Grand Master of the independent Order of Odd Fellows, in which lodge he served several years as treasurer.

On December 24, 1861, he married Elizabeth Forcey. Beside his wife he is survived by six daughters, Eliza, wife of August King of Superior, Wis.; Julia, Ida, Mary, Ella, all of Austin, and Veta, wife of Louis Dewitt of Chicago. He also leaves two brothers, William Weisel of Lowrey and Con Weisel of Austin, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Miller of Minneapolis.

He had a fine farm in Lansing township and during the later years of his life he took great pride in driving to his farm and looking after its up-keep. The family have lived on Water street for most of the years they have been here. The old home just east of the present home was occupied for many years before the beautiful new home was built.

Mr. Weisel was interested in the welfare of his home and community and he was always ready to assist in any work along progressive lines.

A wedding, as pretty as it was informal, occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weisel Wednesday evening at four o'clock, when their daughter Veta was united in marriage to Mr. Louis Waldo DeWitt of Chicago.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Holmes of Christ Episcopal church in the presence of about twenty relatives. The bride was unattended and wore a beautiful gown of pale blue crepe.

The house had been decorated in roses and sweet peas. The table where the wedding supper was served, bore as a centerpiece a basket of flowers. The supper was served at five o'clock. Mrs Fred Fenton catered, and Mr.s Charles Hans, Mrs. F. H. Campbell and Mrs Janette Mackie served.

The bride;s going away gown was of light blue-grey wool and she wore a large black picture hat. Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt left on the evening train for Chicago where they will reside at 4353 Jackson street.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weisel, a girl of charming personality and sweet, winning disposition. For the past three years she has been in Chicago, taking a course of training as a nurse and for the past year has followed her chosen work in the Sears Roebuck private hospital.

The groom is head book keeper in the Grant Iron Works of Chicago and a young man of ability and high standard of character.

Congratulations poured in by telegram from Chicago as soon as the ceremony had been performed and the best wishes of a host of Austin friends will follow Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt to their Chicago home.

130. Newspapers - Obituaries, Glenwood Herald of May 5, 1932 page 8 column 4. Mrs. Mary Weisel

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Mary Weisel, aged pioneer mother who died Thursday morning after an illness of fourteen weeks.

Mary Schepp was born at Baaden, Germany on October 1, 1846 and when seven years of age immigrated to America with her parents, a brother and sister, coming to Kingston, Wis. Here she received religious instruction and was confirmed in the Lutheran church. She was married to William Weisel on October 25, 1864 and for 18 years they made their home near Kingston. They then moved to Moore [Mower] county, Minnesota, where they resided for seven years moving from there to Pope county.

Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Weisel, ten of whom survive their mother. One child died infancy and one son, Conrad died two years ago at Washington. Mr. Weisel died nine years ago, five years after celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. All of the children were present for their mother's funeral. They are Jake of Eveleth, Minn., Mrs. George Arndt of Brandon, Mrs. Marit Armstrong of Chisholm, George of Duluth, John of Kensington, Henry of Lowry, William of Eagle Bend. Mary at home, Mrs. C. O. Johnson of Easton, Minn., and Harold at home. Mrs. Weisel is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Baer, Wausau, Wis., and a half brother, George Wells of Fairmont, Minn., and 13 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Throughout her life Mrs. Weisel has been an ardent church worker and has carried out her Christian principles in her home. During her illness which began with an attack of influenza last January, she has been lovingly cared for by her sons and daughters who have been able to be with her and the others have shown their high esteem and fondness for her by their frequent visits and other acts of kindness. Other relatives and members of the community have also shown their respect for this pioneer mother by their many calls at the Weisel home during her illness.

The St. Pauli church was filled to overflowing on Sunday by Mrs. Weisel's vast number of friends who came to pay their last respects to this noble woman. Rev. J. G Vange was in charge of the services both at the home and at the church. Mrs. Carl Korstad of Wells, Minn., sang "Beautiful Isles of Somewhere" and the Misses Jennie and Myrtle Quitney sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Misses Florence Engebretson accompanied Mrs. Korstad and Miss Ethel Lidstrom the Misses Quitney. Great bouquets and wreaths of flowers and potted plants, gifts from friends, filled the church. Interment was made at the St. Pauli cemetery beside her husband.

Those from a distance attending the obsequies besides sons and daughters were: R. J. Weisel and daughter of Minneapolis, C. J. Weisel of Randolph, Wis., Miss Ida Weisel, Austin, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Geo Weisel of Clear Lake S. D., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Armstrong, Chisholm, C. O. Evelyn Halvorson, 89

Evelyn "Evie" Halvorson, age 89, went to her heavenly home on February 21, 2015 at Glacial Ridge Hospital in Glenwood.

Evelyn was born April 4, 1925, in Reno Township, Pope County, to Albina (Kroupa) and John Weisel.

She was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith, and held a lifelong strong and unwavering faith. She received her elementary education in country schools, and attended high school at the Morris Ag School where she was a cheerleader and made lifelong friendships with several classmates.

As a young adult she worked as a clerk in the Ogdahl general store in Farwell, where she met her future husband, Alfred Halvorson, in 1944. They were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Rev. Sheldahl, Evelyn's childhood pastor, on May 23, 1947, and lived their entire married life in Farwell. They were blessed with three children, Ruth, Jeffrey and Paula.

Evelyn worked for a few years in the mid-1960s at the Alexandria Herberger's store, and at the Glenwood Pastry Shop in the 1990s, a job she loved but gave up in 1994 to lovingly care for her mother who had suffered a stroke.

Evelyn's greatest joy was caring for her family. She was a devoted wife and mother, who loved unconditionally and tenderly. She said she dreaded when her children had to return to school because she so enjoyed having them home in the summer. Evelyn possessed a quiet, dignified strength, and was a trusted confidante to all her friends. She never criticized or spoke unkindly to or about anyone. Friends and relatives remember her as "always joyful," "elegant," and "beautiful inside and out."

She was active in the Farwell Lutheran Church, teaching Sunday school, singing in the ladies' choir, and participating in Ladies Aid/Circle until the church closed. She and Alfred subsequently joined Oscar Lake Church.

As a young mother, Evie was part of the ladies' bowling league and softball team, remembered for "sliding into third base just like a Major Leaguer." She was a talented seamstress and loved playing cards. She was known as an excellent cook, always having delicious home-baked goods in the freezer ready to welcome guests who dropped by.

Evelyn is survived by her loving husband of almost 68 years, Alfred; daughter, Ruth Eastling; son, Jeffrey and wife Allison; grandchildren, Lakija Eastling Mostyn and husband Todd, Djata Eastling Grant, Syverind and wife Jill Halvorson, Leif and wife Mary Kate Halvorson, and great-granddaughter, Julia Eastling.

She was pre-deceased by her parents; daughter, Paula; brother, William Weisel; and son-in-law, Aaron Eastling.

A celebration of Evelyn's life will be held at Oscar Lake Church on Friday, March 6, with visitation from 10 to 11 a.m. followed by a memorial service at 11.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Oscar Lake Church or the donor's charity of choice.

Beverly Jane Weisel, 80, died Sunday, August 19, 2012 at Knute Nelson in Alexandria after a short and courageous battle with Hodgkins lymphoma.

Beverly Jane Weisel, 80, died Sunday, August 19, 2012 at Knute Nelson in Alexandria after a short and courageous battle with Hodgkins lymphoma.

Beverly was born December 31, 1931 in Alexandria to Leonard and Pearl (Johnson) Bratton. She was baptized and confirmed at Holmes City/Oscar Lake parishes. The family moved to rural Holmes City where Bev went to school through the eighth grade at Pocket Lake School. Bev later attended Morris Ag School for two years and graduated with a home economics degree.

On October 1, 1949, Bev was united in marriage to William Weisel at the Oscar Lake Lutheran Church. The couple moved to Alexandria, later returning to the Oscar Lake area. They were blessed with three children, Wendy, Kevin and Darin. Bev was a "master domestic engineer," as described by her children; but she would have explained it as a mother and homemaker. She was a dedicated wife and mother, and worked alongside Bill at Weisel Well Drilling. The couple enjoyed spending their winters in Arizona from 1986 until 2006.

Bev was a baker and cook extraordinaire; with her famous buns, rolls and sugar cookies. She enjoyed collecting memorabilia, commemoratives and antiques. Bev was a very generous lady with a really big-gifted heart. She loved the holidays and made the holidays very special for her family. Most of all, Bev loved being with her family, especially her grandchildren.

"It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home."

She is survived by her daughter, Wendy (Lonnie) Wing in Lake Mary Township; sons, Kevin (Pauline) Weisel of Alexandria and Darin (Kellie) Weisel of Farwell; nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; brother, Leonard (Judy Sayther) Bratton Jr. of the Twin Cities area; sisters, Bonnie (Greg) Soderberg of Las Vegas and Patty (Roy) Wicken of Alexandria; sister-in-law, Dorothy Bratton of Douglas, AZ; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Evie (Al) Halvorson of Farwell; and many nieces and nephews.

Bev was preceded in death by her parents, Leonard and Pearl; husband, Bill; brothers, Beryl Bratton; Larry (Shirley) Bratton; sister, LaRae (Doug) Barros; and sister-in-law, Toby Bratton.

A memorial service was held Saturday, August 25 at Oscar Lake Lutheran Church in Holmes City Township with the Rev. Denise Croskey officiating. Organist was Sara Rensink. Inurnment was at Oscar Lake Lutheran Cemetery. Honorary urn bearers were the Apples Of Her Eye, her grandchildren, William Clay (Amanda) Weisel, Lindsay (Matt) Walliczek, Alyssa Anderson, Ashley Weisel, Jody Weisel, Owen Weisel, Josh Weisel, Sam Wing, Danielle (Max) Bogenrief; and great-grandchildren, Lily Weisel, Deidric Walliczek, Riley Weisel, and Kaylee Weisel, Abiah Bogenrief and Kole Bogenrief. By GINNY MERRIAM for the Missoulian

Friends and relatives of Missoula writer Virginia Weisel Johnson remembered her Thursday as an expert horsewoman, a determined writer and an energetic and courageous person who refused to give in to an illness that lasted more than 25 years.

"She was a terribly vital person and interested in many things," her cousin Nora Rimel said Thursday. "She fought a battle with cancer for years and years and years and just never gave in to it."

Johnson, who died of cancer Wednesday at age 77 at her home in Missoula, was the author of seven books. The most recent was "The Heavenly Horses," the story of the Hungarian horse breed she worked to preserve. Among her other books are "The Unregimented General: The Biography of Nelson A. Miles" and "Lady in Arms," the story of Johnson's life as the wife of an U.S. Army brigadier general.

"She was great with horses, an excellent rider," Virginia Ronhovde of Missoula said. "Shrode in horse races long before women ever did that."

Ronhovde's mother, Harriet Rankin Sedman, and Johnson's mother, Thula Toole Weisel, were best friends whose daughters became best friends. Johnson's father, George F. Weisel, built the Circle W and Double Arrow ranches, where his daughter became a horsewoman as a young girl.

Ronhovde remembered a horse race Johnson rode in at the Helmville Rodeo in the late 1920s.

"Virginia was up on the neck of the horse, and we practically had tears in our eyes when she came in first," Ronhovde said. "She was a person of great bravery, great courage. That horse race has always been in my mind."

Johnson eloped with W.M. Johnson in 1933.

"Her father and mother didn't want her to marry just a second lieutenant," her niece Thula Weisel said. "But he did very well for himself."

The Johnsons lived in England, Germany, Okinawa and other places, returning to Missoula in 1957.

Johnson was a cousin of former mayor John Toole. Her brother, George F. Weisel, is a retired UM zoology professor. She had two daughters, Thula "Tex" Johnson of Stockton, Calif., and Linda Johnson of Chester.

Long-time friend Tomme Lu Worden said Johnson worked "endless hours" on the board of the Friends of the Mansfield Library.

Mrs. Johnson is survived by her husband, retired Brig. Gen. W.M. Johnson, of the family home; two daughters, Thula V. Johnson, Stockton, Calif.; and Linda M. Johnson, Chester; one brother, George F. Weisel II, of Missoula; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Memorial services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Squire Simmons & Carr Funeral Home. Cremation has taken place. Interment of the remains will be in the Missoula Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials in Mrs. Johnson's name be made to Hospice of Missoula.

George F. Weisel Jr.

MISSOULA - George F. Weisel Jr., born March 21, 1915, died Dec. 12, 2005. His son and daughter were by his side.

George was a fourth-generation Montanan. His maternal great-grandfather, Allen Hardenbrook, came to Montana in 1863. Hardenbrook's daughter, Anna, married John R. Toole, another early Montana pioneer, who built a family residence at 1005 Gerald Ave. in Missoula.

Thula, a daughter, was married by the Rev. Norman Maclean to George F. Weisel Sr. in 1909. George Sr. was a co-owner and supervised the building of a main lodge and guest cabins of a dude ranch south of Seeley Lake. He and his partner, Jan Boissevain, named it the Double Arrow. After selling his interest in this ranch, he purchased another located west of Ovando. He named this ranch the Circle W.

George F. Weisel Jr. was born to George Sr. and Thula Toole in the Toole family home on Gerald Avenue. His early years were spent growing up in Missoula, attending school at the newly constructed Paxson grade school and later, beginning in 1930, working on the Double Arrow and then the Circle W.

In 1936, George went to Cornell University to begin work on his undergraduate degree. His skill as a horseman learned on Montana ranches earned him a spot on the polo team. He completed his undergraduate work at the University of Montana. He married Maxine George of Worcester, Mass., in 1940, and later divorced. They had one child.

George served in the Pacific as a lieutenant junior grade in the U.S. Navy from 1943-46.

Following his discharge, he pursued his graduate education at the University of Montana, the University of Michigan and the Scripps Institute of Oceanography, receiving his Ph.D. in zoology from the University of California in 1948. He then returned to Missoula, where he was employed by the University of Montana as instructor and later full professor from 1948-1985.

In 1950, he married Angela McCormick. They had two children.

At the University of Montana, George taught classes in ichthyology, histology, comparative anatomy and water quality. He shared his appreciation and wonder at the workings of the natural world with his students, several whom remained in contact with him up to his last years. His publications throughout his lifetime included "Men and Trade on the Northwest Frontier," based on the Fort Owen journals, "Fishes of Intermountain Montana" and over 50 scientific and historical journals including "Ten Animal Myths of the Flathead Indians," legends related to him by Ellen Big Sam.

George's professional associations included the American Society of Ichthyologists, American Society of Zoology, National Resources Defense Council and Scientists for Public Information. He served as past president of the Western Montana Fish and Game Association, director for the legal and educational fund of the Montana Wilderness Association and editor for the University of Montana Press.

He was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity and Sons and Daughters of Montana Pioneers.

An avid environmentalist, George's activities included testimony before the U.S. Congress in support of the preservation and expansion of the Bob Marshall Wilderness area. He packed with horse and mule into the Bob Marshall most every summer as a child up to 78 years of age.

George was preceded in death by a brother, John; two sisters, Anna Afton Boissevain and Virginia Weisel; his wife, Angela McCormick; and his mule, Burley Ironsides, who died Dec. 6 at the age of 33 years.

He is survived by his three children, Anna Afton Ghandour of Lake Tahoe, Calif., Thula M. Weisel of Seattle and George F. Weisel III of Missoula; and his nieces, Virginia (Tex) Johnson of Missoula, Linda M. Johnson of Helena, Margaret B. Vance of Missoula, Kathy Vance (Bruce Sewell) of Coweta, Okla., Angela Vance (Paul Pendery) of Polson and Camilla D. Vance (Jeff Strange) of Portland, Ore.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Montana Wilderness Association and the Montana Environmental Information Center. Graveside services will be held at 1 p.m., June 12, at the Missoula Cemetery. A reception will follow, location to be announced.

MISSOULA - Angela McCormick Weisel died Dec. 24, 2000, at home surrounded by her family. Angela was a loving and beloved person who will be missed by all who knew her.

Angela was born Jan. 1, 1918, to Washington Jay McCormick Jr. and Edna Fox Phillips. She was a long time resident of Missoula, a third generation Montanan descended from early Montana pioneers. Her father, W.J. McCormick Jr. served as Missoula County representative from 1919 to 1921. Angela's grandfather, Washington Jay McCormick Sr., first arrived in Virginia City in 1863. He served as secretary of the first Democratic convention held in 1864 and was a member of the territorial legislature. He came to Missoula in 1868 where he founded and edited Missoula's first newspaper. He gave three blocks of land in Missoula to the Catholic Church where St. Patrick Hospital and a school were established and was instrumental in securing the building of the Northern Pacific Railroad to Missoula. In 1869 he married Kate Higgins, a sister of Captain C.P. Higgins, a co-founder of Missoula.

Angela graduated from the University of Montana in 1935. Following graduation she worked in Seattle bank and then for Northwest Airlines in Missoula. During World War II from 1944 to 1946 Angela served with the American Red Cross in New Guinea and the Philippines. In 1950 Angela married George F. Weisel Jr. For many years she worked as a volunteer for the Red Cross and the St. Patrick Hospital Guild.

Angela is survived by her husband George; her sister Camilla McCormick of Missoula; and her two children, Thula Weisel of Seattle and George F. Weisel III of Missoula.

The family asks that instead of flowers, memorials be made to a charity of choice or the Missoula Hospice. Graveside services will be held in the spring. The date will be announced.

Arrangements are under the direction of Garden City Funeral Home and Crematory.

OBITUARY: BARBARA DAWN OLSON

Barbara Dawn Olson, long-time Pasco resident and wife of attorney Orville Olson (who pre-deceased her), died recently at the age of 96 of Alzheimer's disease. She died peacefully with family at her bedside.

She is survived by daughters Patsy, Nancy, Janet and Shirley and their families, including 6 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren, as well as a younger sister, Virginia Weisel, of Sonoma, CA.

She and Orville moved from Pasco to Issaquah, WA, in 2001 to be closer to their daughters. She continued an active life there after Orville's death in 2003.

Barbara was a member of the International Chapter PEO Sisterhood for over 60 years and president of her chapters in both Pasco and Issaquah. She was Corresponding Secretary of the Washington State Federation of Women's Clubs; District Chairman of the Pasco Girl Scouts; Chairman, Tri-City Country Club Women's Golf; Treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary to the Benton-Franklin Counties Bar Association; long-time member of the First Church of Christ Scientist in Pasco; member of the Pasco City Planning Commission; and a volunteer for the Symphony, Cancer Center and the Columbia River Exhibition of History, Science & Technology. Barbara was an avid tennis player and golfer at the Tri-City Country Club and later Meadow Springs.

She continued to play tennis and golf into her 90s, learned to ski in her 70s, and tap danced in her 80s.

She was a beautiful woman, always well-dressed, highly energetic, a great hostess, excellent cook and seamstress, a good friend to many, and a devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, who always put her family first. She will be deeply missed and remembered with much love.

473. Newspapers - Obituaries, The Seattle Times, July 29, 2017. Virginia Van Winkle Weisel

Virginia Weisel, an accomplished ceramic artist and sculptor in the Pacific Northwest for many decades, died in Sonoma, CA on June 28, 2017 at the age of 94. Her bright, witty, irreverent, creative spirit will be long remembered by her close Seattle and Sonoma friends, her cousin Thula Weisel, and her five surviving nieces and their families. She was predeceased by her parents, R. Paul and Marjorie Weisel, two sisters and a brother, all of whom she will be reunited with at the Lakeview Cemetery in Seattle. Ashes will also be scattered at the same location as Aurilla Doerner, her life partner who died in 1996.

A graduate of Roosevelt High School and the University of Washington, Virginia received her MA from Mills College in Oakland, CA, before opening her own ceramic studio, The Kiln, in Bellevue, WA and helping to found Pacific Northwest Arts & Crafts. Her exquisite ceramic forms, superb craftsmanship and high-intensity glazes gained her a loyal following, garnered many awards and saw her work exhibited at art galleries and museums in Seattle, Portland, Oakland and San Francisco. She began creating sculpture in the 1970s, and her beautiful and graceful forms in wood, stone and metal are found in many private and corporate collections in the Northwest. She was represented by the Foster/White Gallery in Seattle and San Francisco. Her piece "Magnetic Tension" remains on public display at the Bellevue City Center Lobby and several of her ceramic pots are on permanent display at the Cascadia Art Museum in Edmonds, Washington where her pottery and sculpture will be highlighted in a group show of mid-20th century Pacific Northwest artists beginning in January 2018.

Virginia spent the final three decades of her life in Sonoma, CA, where she was embraced by the love of friends and caregivers until her death. Donations may be made in Virginia's memory to the Cascadia Art Museum which will be permanently honoring her legacy of Pacific Northwest art.

477. Newspapers - News, Austin Daily Herald - Austin, Minnesota - May 3 1907. SILVER WEDDING

Miller-Weisel

Perhaps one of the most complete surprise ever planned in Austin was carried out by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Weisel

Thursday evening at German Hall in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. Mrs. Weisel had been solicited for a celebration in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Gulden and hurried down to the hall in working garb to assist in serving supper. The guests were seated at the supper table before Mr. and Mrs. Weisel realized that the celebration was in their honor. Their wedding day was April 2 and the fact that it had passed by a month ago served further to allay any suspicions on their part of the intentions of their friends, and it all worked out to be the surprise of the season. O. J. who is not so easily taken in, was beguiled in contributing, to his own present, under the impression that he was giving toward a gift for his friend John Gulden. He was almost as surprised as his wife when he learned of the trip into which he had fallen. "There is just one fault with the wedding celebration" said the bridegroom today "we can never celebrate it again."

There were about forty present. An elegant and elaborate supper was served about seven o'clock after which Mr. John Gulden in behalf of the friends presented Mr. and Mrs. Weisel with a beautiful silver candelabrum. Mr Weisel responded to the address and token of esteem as well as his surprise at the situation would permit.

After supper old and young joined in a jollification. Old German songs were sung, and dancing was a delightful one and all present will remember it as one of the happy occasions of life.

Mr. and Mrs. O.J. Weisel were married in Cambria, Wis. twenty-five years ago April 3, of this year. They came at once to Austin where they have since made their home. The celebration Thursday evening was an expression of regard from a part of their circle of Austin friends.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. Fred Miller last Monday evening by members of the Women's S. S. class of the Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Miller has been a faithful teacher for a long time. The ladies and their husbands took possession of the home while Mr. Miller was out on an errand. Upon his return he was completely surprised and did not fully realize the meaning of the gathering until the Pastor, Rev. D. Evans Jones, made a few explanatory remarks and then in the name of the class presented him with a fountain pen, expressive of their regards and best wishes for him and Mrs. Miller in their future home in Minneapolis. Mr. Miller responded in a touching manner expressing his appreciation and the hope that he may be used of God for many years in the teaching of His word. The ladies had prepared an elegant dinner after which a most delightful evening of good fellowship was enjoyed. Those present, besides Mr. and Mrs. Miller were: Rev. and Mrs. D. Evans Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. Umbreit, Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Abendroth, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Albee, Mr. Thos. Cottam, Mrs. D. W. Griffith, and Mrs. Stone of Waukesha. Two members of the class -- Mrs. Thos. Cottam and Mrs. R. E. Owen were unable to be present.
